TWELFTH YEAR. NO. 300.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 1897.

TWO CENTS

'TIS CINCINNATI DAY.

Ohioans Still Celebrating at the Nashville Exposition.

PRESIDENT THE CENTRAL FIGURE.

Governor Bushnell Also a Notable Participant in the Exercises—Speech of the President Ohio Day—Ovation to Mrs. McKinley, While Bushnell Spoke.

NASHVILLE, June 12.—Today is Cincinnati day at the exposition, and it seems that the major portion of the Queen City's population has been turned loose in this beautiful city of the south. The presence of President McKinley and Governor Bushnell will lend eclat to the occasion.

The order of the program was the same as yesterday, and the line of march was the same as on that day. President Thomas and the executive committee called on the president and his party at the Maxwell House at 9 a. m. and escorted them to the exposition accompanied by United States troops and the police escort.

On arrival on the grounds the party proceeded to the Cincinnati building, where General W. H. Jackson delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the exposition.

The Cincinnati building was then formally presented for dedication to the mayor of Cincinnati by Robert Laidlaw, president of the Cincinnati commissioners.

Formal dedication of the building by his honor, the mayor of Cincinnati, then took place.

At 11:45 to 12:30 p. m. a reception was held at the Cincinnati building in honor of President McKinley and the Ohioans in Nashville.

At 12:30 p. m. the party proceeded to the Negro building, where a concert was tendered President McKinley by the jubilee singers.

At 12:45 p. m. the party left the Negro building on a tour of inspection through the grounds.

At 1:30 p. m. luncheon was served to the presidential party at the club to the gentlemen only, the ladies of the party being entertained by the reception and ceremonial committee of the woman's board at the Woman's building.

At 3 p. m. a general reception was given by President McKinley at the Government building.

At 4 p. m. there was a drill of the Cincinnati police; inspection by Chief of Police Philip Deitsch, His Honor Mayor John A. Caldwell and police commissioners of the city of Cincinnati.

From 5 to 10 p. m. inspection of buildings, art gallery, vanity fair, etc., and special fireworks will occur.

The presidential party will leave Nashville for home at 7 p. m. tonight, returning by the way of Chattanooga.

During the Ohio day celebration yesterday, when Governor Asa Bushnell of Ohio, evidently a well-known figure to many of the audience, as when introduced his bow was followed by a flattering reception, was in the middle of his speech, vociferous cheers from the rear of the auditorium heralded the approach of a distinguished personage, and the roar became deafening as Mrs. McKinley was recognized. She came directly down the center aisle accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Saxton, and Mrs. J. L. Eakin of Nashville, and smiled pleasantly as the president hurried to the platform steps and gave her his arm, conducting her to a seat by his side and immediately in front of Secretary Porter and his wife. There could be no doubt as to the place this gentle woman holds in the hearts of all Americans.

The vast audience cheered until it seemed tired out, but commenced again with renewed vigor when a large bunch of fragrant roses were handed to Mrs. McKinley, who bowed her acknowledgments. When the applause that followed Governor Bushnell's peroration has subsided.

Governor Bushnell expressed the gratification it afforded him to respond on behalf of the state of Ohio to the generous words of welcome that had been uttered by the representatives of the state of Tennessee and the exposition. Speaking of the exposition, he said Ohio applauded the energy and the enterprise, the ability and the zeal, the courage and the consummate skill which had given to the nation and the world this splendid manifestation of the triumphs of civilization during a century of progress.

Ohio recognized the distinction given when Tennessee on her great exposition program set apart this time for the people of her admiring and loyal sister state to pay their tribute, respect and their homage for a deed well done. No praise or homage could be more sincere than that of Ohio. Tennessee and Ohio were bound by a fraternal chain. A common ancestry united many of their respective people; they had been closely allied in the commercial world; the states have progressed along the same lines, and each has furnished to the nation a notable list of great men.

Ohio, when her century of time shall have come, must send her greeting and her bidding to the people of Tennessee that they may journey northward to worship at another shrine of progress and development. "Ohio will have her centennial in six years, and I now anticipate the assurance of the welcome to you all by some future governor of the state."

Governor Bushnell expressed the hope that the bond between the states may grow stronger year by year, by reason of this closer communion.

"Cordially and heartily," said he, "we accept and treasure the assurances of amity that have been spoken. As earnestly and sincerely do we repeat the pledges for our part."

President Thomas introduced the great figure of the occasion and Mr. McKinley's face lit up as the audience rose en masse and shouted out cheer after cheer. The scene recalled a national convention, when the name of some national favorite is mentioned in a nominating speech.

The president in his speech reviewed at length much of the history of Tennessee. Then he said:

Tennessee has some times been called the mother of southwestern statesmen. It furnished us the immortal Jackson, whose record in war and whose administration in peace as the head of the great republic shines on with the advancing years. The century has only added to the luster of his name, increased the obligations of his countrymen and exalted him in their affections. Polk and Johnson also were products of this great state, and many more heroes of distinguished deeds whose names will come unbidden to your memories while I speak.

Tennesseans have ever been volunteers, not drafted, patriots. In 1846, when 2,400 soldiers were called for, 30,000 loyal Tennesseans offered their services; and amid the trials and terrors of the great civil war, under conditions of peculiar distress and embarrassment, her people did not on contending sides, but upon which ever side found, they fought fearlessly to death and gallant sacrifice. The men who opposed each other in dreadful battle a third of a century ago are once more an forever united together under one flag in a never-to-be-broken union.

He then detailed the industrial wealth of the state and further said:

At no time could this display be more effective than now, when what the country needs more than all else is restored confidence in itself. This exposition demonstrates directly your own faith and purpose and signifies in the widest sense your true and unflinching belief in the irrepressible luck of the American people, and is a promising indication of the return of American prosperity.

The knowledge which this beautiful and novel exposition gives will surely stimulate competition, develop your trade, increase your output, enlarge your fields of employment, extend your markets, and so eventually pay for all its costs, as well as justify local sentiment and encourage state pride.

Men and women I see about me from all parts of the country, and thousands more will assemble here before the exposition is closed. Let ourselves and let them always remember that whatever differences about politics may have existed, or still exist, we are all Americans before we are partisans, and value the welfare of all the people above party or section. Citizens of different states, we yet love all the states. The lesson of the hour then is this—that whatever adverse conditions may temporarily impede the pathway of our national progress, nothing can permanently defeat it.

ANOTHER OHIO MAN HONORED.

Richards to Be Solicitor General of Department of Justice.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—On July 1, Judge J. K. Richards, ex-attorney general of Ohio, will succeed Judge Holmes Conrad as solicitor general in the department of justice. Judge Conrad placed his resignation at the president's disposal early in March, but was induced to remain in office until certain important cases in the supreme court, with which he had been prominently identified, had been argued.

A Big Slander Case.

CANTON, O., June 12.—An interesting suit on trial is that of Mrs. Alice M. Rex against Mrs. A. R. Demuth. The former is of a prominent family and the latter a fashionable milliner. The suit is for $20,000 damages, and is based on the alleged slandering of Mrs. Rex by Mrs. Demuth said publicly that Mrs. Rex had stolen a $4 feather from her store. This promises to drag into testimony most of the old fight in the local, state and national departments of the Women's Relief Corps.

Made the Reward Larger.

SALINEVILLE, O., June 12.—John R. Shaw, the father of Scott Shaw, who was so terribly mutilated by tramps near Mechanicstown on Tuesday, has increased the reward offered for the guilty men to $500. The young man is now at home and improving slowly. The day Shaw was assaulted burglaries were reported in the vicinity, and a physician was held up and robbed near Harlem Springs.

To Build a Big Pottery.

AKRON, O., June 12.—Contracts will be let next week for the construction of a pottery for the Whitmore, Robinson company, whose plant was burned last fall. The new plant will be the largest of its kind in the United States. Several of the East Akron potteries have recently been closed, but the Akron Whiteware company will resume full force next week.

Terrell Received by the Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 12.—Alexander W. Terrell, the United States minister to Turkey, has been received in audience by the sultan and presented his letters of recall. Mr. Terrell's departure is fixed for June 15.

May Clear Winterstein.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., June 12.—The jury in the Winterstein trial is still out. It is said they stand 11 for acquittal to 1 for conviction.

TRADE STILL GAINING.

Dun Sees Improvement in Spite of Fluctuations.

GOOD CROP PROSPECTS HELPFUL.

Wool Awaits the Impending Tariff Changes—Too Much Pigiron Being Produced—Better Demand For Plates, Sheets and Bars—Business Failures.

NEW YORK, June 12.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade issued today says: The gain in business continues, notwithstanding fluctuations and at the best moderate, but yet distinct. It is still in quantities rather than prices, although in some branches an advance in prices appears, but on the whole the number of hands employed, the volume of new orders, and the amount of work done, are slowly increasing. Prospects of good crops of wheat and cotton helps, growing demand from dealers whose stocks are gradually gaining consumption deplete also helps, and in the money and exchange market large buying of American securities has an influence.

Wheat looks well, and the best trade authority now estimates the yield at 515,000,000 bushels, with many state railroad returns to support it. The price recovered 1½ cents after last week's fall of over 4 cents, because visible supplies are diminishing, but with 2,970,579 bushels received at western ports in June, Atlantic exports have been, flour included, 3,128,943 bushels, against 3,704,827 bushels in one more day last year. The outgo is steady and, since March, has been 16,946,382 bushels, against 16,115,421 bushels last year, and yet western receipts have kept fairly ahead of the exports.

Neither cotton or woolen mills can expect other than a waiting business with a change of tariff impending. Some large woolen mills are preparing to increase output and have bought heavily, sales of foreign wool at Boston alone having reached 6,310,000 pounds out of 8,368,000 sold of all kinds at the three chief markets. Carpet mills at Philadelphia, which have just resumed after a long idleness, were also busy and all are now running nearly full time. A somewhat better reorganizing demand for woollens is reported especially in medium and high-priced goods and fancy worsteds, without change in prices.

Iron furnaces in blast June 1 reported a weekly output of 168,380 tons, against 170,528 tons May 1, and in unsold stocks, exclusive of the great steel companies an increase of 11,613 tons for the month, to 1,050,252 tons. Yet when an accident sent one of the large concerns into the market to buy quickly 50,000 to 60,000 tons of pig, the price rose to $9.90 for Bessemer at Pittsburgh, receding afterwards to $9.75, with Grey forge higher at $8.25.

The main fact is that production of pig has for some months been much in excess of the demand in the manufacture of finished products. Failure to form the rod trust caused wire nails to yield 5 cents. The general demand for plates and sheets was, better, and for bars much larger east and at Chicago, with some large orders taken at Pittsburgh. Philadelphia reports decided improvement in finished iron, with fewer concessions, and Pittsburgh large structural orders, while apprehension of labor difficulties has induced much buying at the west. The strike at Pittsburgh ended without success.

Failures for the week have been 262 in the United States, against 246 last year, and 30 in Canada, against 27 last year.

ROW OVER THE BLACK GOWN.

A Vote Ordering Its Usage Causes Reformed Episcopalians to Resign.

NEW YORK, June 12.—At the session of the general council of the Reformed Episcopal church the vestment question was taken up, and after a long debate the council voted to make the black gown the vestment to be used on all occasions, except by those who are now wearing the surplice.

Bishop Cheney resigned all his offices outside of the bishopric because of this action, which, he said, was a blow at church liberty.

This was followed by Miss Harriet S. Benson withdrawing until further notice the income from her contribution to the special church extension trust and the special synod trust. These trusts provide an income to the church of $15,000 a year.

R. W. Hare of Chicago resigned from the committee on Sabbath schools. Rev. William Fairley, professor in the theological seminary at Philadelphia, resigned from the committee on constitution and canons. Rev. F. J. Walter of Chicago left the board of trustees of the Publication society James Van Epps of Cleveland resigned from the committee on constitution and canons.

TO TAX INHERITANCES.

Democrats Offer an Amendment to the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Democratic members of the senate committee on finance have agreed to offer as an amendment to the tariff bill a provision for an inheritance tax. The amendment was prepared by Senator Turpie and was by him presented to the senate on behalf of the Democratic minority. The principal provision of the amendment is as follows:

"That on and after Jan. 1, 1898, and for five years thereafter there shall be laid and levied a sum equal to 2 per cent of the value of every decedent's estate, as an inheritance tax, whether it is testate or intestate, to be paid by the executors, administrators and trustees thereof or by the heirs or by the distributees, devisees or legatees, when the value of such estate or inheritance is $5,000 or upwards, except where legacies or bequests are made to religious, charitable, educational or other organizations, which may, by the laws of the state, territory or district in which the decedent was residing at the time of his death, be exempt from taxation."

Other provisions of the amendment prescribe method of ascertaining the value of estates and of collecting the tax by internal revenue collectors.

BRITISH TROOPS MASSACRED.

Hostile Natives Attacked the Queen's Soldiers in India.

BOMBAY, June 12.—Two guns belonging to a Bombay mounted battery and escorted by 300 men belonging to the first regiment of Sikhs and the first Punjab infantry have been treacherously attacked in the Tochi valley by a large force of hostile natives.

The first report said that Colonel Bunny, two officers and 25 privates had been killed and that three officers and 25 men had been wounded.

Indications are that the affair is more than a mere conflict with native tribes and that the notorious mullah of Powindah is at the bottom of the trouble. The latest advice is that a political officer, Mr. Gee, was visiting Shirani with an escort of troops, when he was attacked at Maiza by vastly superior forces.

Captain Brown of the First Sikhs, son of the late Sir James Browne, and Lieutenant Crookshank of the Royal artillery, were killed, and Surgeon Higginson, Lieutenant Higginson of the First Sikhs, and Lieutenant Seaton-Browne of the Punjab infantry, were wounded.

RAISED A $10,000 DEFICIT.

Work Accomplished by the Lutheran Synod at Mansfield, O.

MANSFIELD, O., June 12.—The Lutheran synod spent most of the session raising $10,000 to cover a deficit that has been troubling the board of home missions for the past year. The task was finally accomplished. The afternoon session was devoted to speeches on home mission work by the different ministers.

Rev. Charles S. Albert of Philadelphia, who has been president of the board of home missions for 14 years, tendered his resignation because of other duties taking all his time. The resignation was accepted and Rev. E. Bockelman of Burlington Ia., was appointed to the vacancy.

The following committee was appointed to nominate members: For the board of the National Home for the Aged in Washington: Revs. M. L. Beard, M. L. Shindel, A. R. Steck, M. H. Valentine, Laymen A. D. Albert, J. F. Spehr and Henry W. Harter.

Home mission anniversary services were held by the synod last evening.

BRITONS LIKE REID'S STYLE.

The United States Special Ambassador's House a Social Center.

LONDON, June 12.—Ambassador Hay gave a dinner last evening in honor of Mr. William Reid, the special ambassador of the United States to the diamond jubilee festivities. Most of the guests were Americans, the company including Mr. Andrew Carnegie and Mr. Chauncey M. Depew.

Mr. Reid's splendid quarters at Lonsdale House are already the scene of social activity, and the special embassy promises to be one of the features of the jubilee. The British government is much pleased that the United States is to be so handsomely represented.

Sir William Colville, the queen's master of ceremonies, has called on Mr. Reid, as did also Lord Wolsley, the commander-in-chief, and other prominent men.

The queen has appointed Colonel Hallam Parr as special envoy to Mr. Reid during his stay here as special ambassador.

The Bad Indians Arrested.

MILES CITY, Mon., June 12.—Sheriff Gibbs has reached this city having in custody Yellow Hair and Sam Crow, the two Cheyenne Indians implicated in the Hoover murder. Agent Stouch called the Indians all in and the arrests were made by the sheriff, no resistance being offered. Chief White Bull is still at liberty, but can be arrested at any time.

Rocked a Fainting Murderer.

ROCKFORD, Ills., June 12.—James French has been hanged here for the murder of his wife last July. French fainted as the black cap was placed over his head. The sheriff suffered nervous prostration.

Sullivan Is Disappointed.

BUFFALO, June 12.—John L. Sullivan and his manager have left for New York without having consummated a match with Fitzsimmons. There is no probability of a match being made.

Byron McClelland Dead.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 12.—Byron McClelland, the well-known turfman, is dead.

NEED MORE CEMENTING.

Differences Developed Among the Republican Senators.

HOLDING ANOTHER CAUCUS TODAY.

That Hawaiian Treaty Seems to Be the Cause of Much Haggling—The Internal Revenue Tobacco Tax Still Unadjusted—Wool Men After Advance.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Republican senators are holding another caucus, having convened at 10 o'clock this morning.

There was a decidedly unsettled condition of affairs on the Republican side of the senate yesterday, and it finally ended in a decision to caucus on the Hawaiian reciprocity proposition and perhaps the anti-trust amendment and other tariff propositions. The Republican members of the finance committee tried to agree upon something concerning Hawaii and avoid a caucus, but the differences of opinion prevented it.

The internal revenue tobacco tax also is still unadjusted, and the committee is not yet agreed, as there is a clash between the New England tobacco growers and those of other parts of the country on the dutiable rate on wrapper tobacco.

The same is true with advocates of the duty on hides. The advocates of a higher rate on wool believe that they will do better in caucus than with the finance committee.

The Hawaiian question has been under consideration by the finance committee, but no conclusion was reached. Senator Perkins of California was present at the meeting and suggested an amendment giving notice of the abrogation of the treaty within a year. The special friends of Hawaii antagonized this amendment, stating that they were willing to leave the matter entirely with the president, going so far as to insert a recommendation that the treaty should be revised, but said they would not make a concession in any other direction.

STOOD BY THE CAUCUS.

First Test on the Sugar Schedule Carried by the Republicans by a Close Vote—First Paragraph of the Schedule Not Disposed Of.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The first test vote on the sugar schedule in the senate resulted in the adoption of the Republican caucus amendment changing the house rate to $1.95 per pound by the close vote of years, 32; nays, 30. The affirmative vote was made of 29 Republicans, 1 Democrat, McEnery (La.), 1 Silver Republican, Jones (Nev.), and 1 Populist, Stewart (Nev.). The negative vote was made up of 25 Democrats, 3 Populists and 2 Silver Republicans. It was the closest vote thus far taken on an issue of importance, and was accepted as showing that any amendment having the sanction of the caucus was assured of adoption.

The vote was taken after many speeches on the effect of the sugar schedule. The main speech came from Mr. Allison, in charge of the bill, and was in the nature of an answer to the charge made against the sugar schedule as a whole and a defense of it. Mr. Gorman spoke against the schedule and the entire bill, pointing out that its effect was to burden the people without opening up to us new foreign markets. Mr. White reviewed the records of Republican senators on the sugar schedule during the debate on the Wilson bill, arraigning them for inconsistency. Mr. Caffery (La.) and Mr. Stewart (Nev.) also spoke, the former against and the latter for the pending schedule, after which the vote was taken.

The first paragraph of the sugar schedule was not finally disposed of up to the time of the adjournment.

NOT UNDER SEALED ORDERS.

The Naval Officials Further Explain the New York's Sailing.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—It is now denied at the navy department that the cruiser New York sailed away from Boston under sealed orders. The explanation of her movements given at the department is as follows:

The ship was to have left Boston last Monday and the department was under the belief that she had done so. Later on, when it was learned that she was still at Boston a telegram was sent to Admiral Scidmore, asking why her departure was delayed. The telegram was put in the naval cipher because if anything had gone wrong with the ship or her machinery it was not desired that it should be generally known. The officials say the ship is going to Newport News and then will return to New York. She will probably be docked.

Aged Man Wants Divorce.

LISBON, O., June 12.—Perry Byard of Leetonia has entered suit for a divorce from Charlotte Byard, his wife for 35 years. Mrs. Byard, it is alleged, has been absent from her home for more than three years. The parties were married in Meadville, Pa., in March, 1863, and are parents of three children, ranging in age from 23 to 33 years.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE

Work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

REPORTS OF ENTERTAINMENTS

The Young Woman's Home Has Been Doing Very Well, and the Evangelistic Department Accomplished Much—Leaflets Distributed.

The report of the Woman's Christian Temperance union for the year is interesting, showing as it does what good work the ladies have been doing. The report is as follows:

"The number of regular business meetings was 24 and of special meetings eight. Mrs. Trego was with us in December holding a series of evangelistic meetings, closing by a rousing meeting in the opera house. The collection was $15, and there were 1,200 earnest listeners. Jan. 22 Doctor Tracy came and was with us 10 days giving his wonderful illustrated lectures in the opera house which was filled every night. Over 800 signed the pledge. March 9, Reverend Naylor delivered an impressive temperance lecture in the Young Men's Christian association auditorium. The collection was $7.28. Miss Anna Shaw was with us March 13, and entertained us on the subject 'The American Home.' The tickets amounted to $36.90. Miss Eva Shontz gave us an interesting entertainment March 30 for the Woman's Temple fund. The collection was $11.74 and from the temple wheels we realized $29. An entertainment on Washington's birthday at the Young Woman's Home, in spite of the rain netted $4.45. May 27 a grand entertainment and festival was given at the auditorium by the young women from which $41 was realized.

"The Christmas treat given at the opera house to poor children not connected with any of the churches or Sabbath schools was one of the happiest occasions in our whole year's work. Many bags of good things were distributed, as were books, toys, hats, caps, etc., donated by our good people. Aside from this, Mrs. Carrie Swan arranged and carried out 'Santa Claus Boys,' which was pleasing to the older persons, as well as the children.

"The leaflets distributed were 'Substitutes for Alcohol in Medicine,' 'Alcohol Warmth' and 'Honest Doctors.' Two wall pockets were placed in the depot and one in the street car station. The number of papers was 1,984; magazines, 8; leaflets, 600. Papers have been distributed in depot, fire station, street car stations, jails, barber shops. The pocket at the depot has been refilled every week. Temperance Sunday was observed in all the churches and Sabbath schools, and five wall pledges have been placed in Sabbath schools.

"Bulletins have been put in the hands of all teachers in the public schools, the schools have been visited, and through the efforts of the board last year the temperance lesson is taught in all the rooms.

"The homes of the poor and sick have been visited, 48 visits being made. While food and clothing have been given. Much good has been done by the Young Women's home. Many wayward ones have been protected and fed, and sick and dying ones have been cared for. Two deaths occurred last winter, a lady 72 years of age and a young woman of 30. How often they expressed thankfulness for the good care and love manifested by the matron and ladies of the home. The hearts of our good citizens have been touched to the extent that they are reaching down into their pockets and giving us help such as we have never had before."

The report of the secretary is as follows:

Receipts—Donations $19.35, lectures $120.24, dues $46, total $175.59. Expenditures—State dues $16, county $13.30, the work $156.29, total $179.59.

Report of the home is as follows:

Receipts—Boarders $1,059.37, donations $180.36, fruits and furnishings $50, total $1,289.73. Expenditures $1,334.42.

The report is signed by Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Curry, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Rezer.

Collided With a Horse.

Miss Luella McKinnon, of East End, last evening while riding her wheel ran into a horse and buggy in Mulberry street. The lady was not injured, but the rim of her bicycle was broken.

Finished the Work.

The street force yesterday completed their work in the suburban districts, cleaning up the debris caused by the storm of Monday.

REDUCING FARES.

A Movement to Reduce Street Car Fares Now on Foot.

And now there is talk of an organized movement to force the reduction of street car fares. The movement is national in its scope; at least it is said to embrace nearly all the large cities in the country. It originated in Boston, where it is said to assume proportions sufficient to command attention. Three cents is the figure set, and those engineering the movement seem to have gone about the matter in a practical, businesslike way. In Boston a "citizens' committee" has been formed, with Robert Treat Paine, Jr., for president, William L. Rutan treasurer and Charles M. Cox secretary. Among the vice presidents are Dr. Edward Everett Hale, Thomas Wentworth Higginson, Robert Treat Paine, Sr., and Josiah Quincy. There are committees on publication, on public meetings and on petitions. Appeals have been sent out to all of the leading cities in the United States to form citizens' committees, to hold meetings and collect facts and figures to be used later on before city councils and state legislatures.

St. Louis is on the list, but the names of the persons who are intrusted with the mission of forming a society have not been disclosed as yet. The street railway men profess ignorance on the subject. When clippings from Boston, Cleveland and Chicago papers were shown them, proving that societies in those three cities had been formed, they expressed no surprise. They said, however, that passengers could not be carried for 3 cents. Captain Robert McCulloch said: "I do not think the movement will amount to anything. At present many of the local roads talk of building extensions and additions, but let a society be formed for the express purpose of reducing the fare and the roads will not build. It will surely have the effect of paralyzing the street railway business for some years to come. There is not a street railway in the country that can carry a passenger for 3 cents and even pay operating expenses."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

RAN WILD IN THE WOODS.

Crazed by Religious Excitement, a Young Woman Escapes From Her Home.

Rev. J. W. Daugherty, founder and pastor of the Apostolic church in Fulton, Va., has created a sensation, both in his community and in Salem, among those who incline to his faith by what is claimed to be a miraculous spiritual operation performed by him. While holding a revival at Bonsack, near Roanoke, he accepted an urgent invitation from Mr. S. D. Goode of Salem to visit his daughter, Miss Anna A. Goode, who lost her reason because of religious zeal and as a result of a sermon that she heard on hell. Miss Goode was formerly a very intelligent young woman and was amanuensis for D. B. Strause, the wealthy banker of Salem, who gave up business for evangelistic work.

Mr. Daugherty found her running wild in the woods, and she took him to be Jesus Christ and obeyed his order to go to the house. The preacher, who believes in divine healing, had prayers and anointed the girl with oil and left her apparently rational. He has since received a very intelligent letter from her, but news now comes that Miss Goode has had a relapse, been adjudged insane and sent to the State hospital.—Washington Post.

ALIVE, BUT BURIED.

A Man Lives to Tell of Ten Minutes in a Grave.

Patrick Clarke was buried for ten minutes recently, his grave being a new sewer. He was put down the regulation five feet and has become a convert to cremation since he went into the trench to make a connection at Fifty-ninth street and Western avenue. The earth, acting as a sexton for itself, fell over its own edge and on Clarke. He did not yell, or if he did it made no difference, since five feet of dirt was between him and daylight.

Inspector James J. Barrett of the city sewerage department saw the accident and called to Contractor Hilliard. They both grabbed shovels and jumped into the pit. They dug with a vengeance, and in ten minutes came to Clarke, who was safe and sound and happy.

It may be of use to science and the health department to know that Clarke was able to breathe through five feet of sand. Clarke says he had time to ask forgiveness for all the bad things he had done in his life.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Just Heard of McKinley's Election.

George L. Ticknor, who has seen little of civilization for 20 years, came down to Winsted, Pa., from the mountains recently to learn who had been elected president last November. After being told he returned to his cabin among the rocks. Before he went to the war he was in love, and when he returned his sweetheart had either gone away or married. Then he went into the woods and built the cabin where he has since lived.—Philadelphia Record.

Respired For Two Weeks.

ATLANTA, June 12.—Terrell Hudson, colored, sentenced to hang at Decatur for the murder in November last of Seab Malcolm, another negro, with whom he quarreled about a dog, has been respired for two weeks.

WAS AT WATERLOO.

INTERESTING REMINISCENCES OF AN OLD SOLDIER.

Deserted From the British Army While Stationed in Canada—The Queen to Be Petitioned to Grant Him an Honorable Discharge.

Living in the busy city of Lynn, Mass., spending the last days of a momentous and dramatic life, honored by all who know him, is John Henry Beard, one of the few survivors of the battle of Waterloo.

This man, nearing the century mark in life, is still in possession of all his faculties and is looking forward with much pleasure to June 21, when he will be the special guest of the Englishmen of the commonwealth of Massachusetts at the celebration of the anniversary of the coronation of Queen Victoria.

"Once an Englishman, always an Englishman," is his idea, but he has nothing but the kindest feelings for the country of his adoption. Still he takes great interest in the happenings on the other side of the ocean and daily reads the cable dispatches and comments on the changes that have taken place since he shouldered a musket and marched from Brussels to take part in the battle of Waterloo.

Having taken part in this battle, fighting on the side of the victors, is of itself a great distinction, but being among the last survivors of this battle, in which over 250,000 men took part, is to have honor thrust upon him, Mr. Beard thinks.

That the Englishmen of Massachusetts admire the man who fought with Wellington is evidenced by the fact that he will be present at the anniversary ceremonies and be the guest of honor. Not only this, but a monster petition is being prepared, which will be presented to the queen, asking her to grant a discharge to this former soldier of Great Britain.

After an honorable service in the army he left without leave, and, although this was 80 years ago, he desires a discharge, and Ambassador Pauncefote, the representative of England at Washington, has taken such an interest in the old gentleman that there remains but little doubt in his mind that an honorable discharge will be granted him.

Few men have lived a more dramatic life than Mr. Beard, and he delights in telling to the younger generation of the exciting times when Napoleon was spreading consternation throughout Europe and England was almost at his mercy. His ancestors for several centuries had been in the army, and his father was colonel of the Sixty-sixth English regiment, stationed at London, when young Beard was born. He visited London in 1840 and even then found it impossible to discover exactly where the old fort was located.

On Nov. 15, 1800, he was born, and for 15 years he lived with the soldiers, saw them drill and was taught military usage and drills.

At the age of 15 he joined the regiment commanded by his father, and a few days after he had celebrated his birthday he was a regular soldier in the service of England and a member of the Sixty-sixth regiment.

"While the regiment remained in England," Mr. Beard said, "the recruits were given the hardest kind of tasks. I remember that the first day I enlisted I was detailed on the guard. I had seen so many military evolutions and been drilled so hard that I was proficient in that branch, but when it came to walking up and down all night I remember I grew very tired. I had an idea that my father would be watching me, and, sure enough, in the early morning I saw a man approach. He was coming noiselessly, and I thought that something was wrong. I halted him, and it proved to be the colonel of the regiment, my father. He had come out to try me and found that I was doing my duty. That pleased him greatly, but he did not show it. He only said that he was glad I was doing my duty as a soldier, and that I was no longer a boy, but was a man."

It was shortly after this that the regiment was ordered to the continent to form part of the allied armies against Napoleon. Young Beard accompanied his father's commands. On the marches through France and Belgium up to the time the regiment came near Brussels there was nothing of incident.

For four days before the battle of Waterloo he says that his regiment marched back and forth from one place to another and were almost always within hearing distance of the French guns. They were not called upon to enter the conflict until the decisive day, when orders came early in the morning to march to the front. Young Beard was in the front ranks of his father's command and remembers, as if it were yesterday, the squares formed by the English soldiers where the French cavalry "foamed itself away."

Beard was wounded three times in the hip, being struck by two bullets at nearly the same instant and being hit again as he lay wounded on the ground. He was carried to the rear, and there saw Napoleon as the latter was on his retreat toward Paris.

Shortly after the battle of Waterloo young Beard's regiment was ordered to Quebec, and he accompanied it there. It was soon after he reached the age of 21 that he secured a leave of absence for a few days, ostensibly to enjoy hunting in the woods. He had heard stories of the fabulous wealth to be secured in the "states" and resolved that his experience in the army should cease. With this intention he left Canada and walked to Richmond, Me., where he married and has since resided, except when in Lynn with his daughter. He is now 97 years old and hopes to live out the century.—Boston Herald.

DYNAMITE FOR GOV. SMITH.

Some Mischance Blew Up His House at Leavenworth, Kan.—Arrest Made.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 12.—The residence of Governor Andrew J. Smith of the National Soldiers' home has been dynamited by some miscreant. Mrs. Smith had a miraculous escape from death, the base of the explosion being directly beneath her bedroom. Besides being cut and bruised by broken glass and pieces of flying bric-a-brac and furniture she was completely prostrated by the frightful shock and is now in a precarious condition.

Governor Smith and their daughter, Miss Daisy, occupied rooms on the second floor and were far enough removed from the explosion to escape the serious consequences suffered by Mrs. Smith.

Joseph W. Oliver, a dishonorably discharged veteran, has been arrested by the police of this city. Evidence against him is strong. He had just come to his room after being out all night. His clothes were ragged and he said he was sorry the explosion had not killed the governor, as he deserved such a fate. Oliver bears a rough reputation.

The Weather.

Fair; light variable winds.

Beauty is the power which captivates the strongest natures.

A woman's personal attractiveness is the weapon with which she conquers her world. Almost every woman believes that she possesses at least some one attractive feature and strives to make the most of that. But mere regularity of feature is not the most attractive form of beauty.

Mankind is more influenced by the bright glowing vitality of perfect health. A classic cast of countenance will not make a woman attractive and captivating, if she is pale, thin, weak and nervous, or has a pimply complexion or unwholesome breath.

These complaints are due to imperfect nutrition. The digestive and blood-making organs fail to extract the needed nourishment from the food, and the liver is too sluggish to cleanse the blood of bilious impurities. The entire constitution becomes weak and poisoned.

The only perfect antidote for this state of things is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It gives power to the digestive and nutritive organs to make an abundance of pure, rich, highly vitalized blood, which permeates the whole system with the sweetness of purity; the beauty of womanly vigor and animation.

It creates solid, healthy flesh and natural color; clears the complexion; dispels wrinkles; rounds out the form and imbues the whole physique with the irresistible natural magnetism of perfect health.

Miss Julia Ellis, of Faith, McLean Co., Ky., writes: "After suffering for a long while with a lingering disease, I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I took seven bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription' and found relief. Life is now no longer a burden to me. I weigh 120 pounds. A year ago I weighed 92 pounds. I shall praise Dr. Pierce's medicines wherever I go. I feel better than ever before. My health was very much impaired, and I feel that I owe a great deal to your wonderful medicines. I truly believe they saved my life. I thank you for the advice which you so kindly gave me while taking your medicines."

WHO SAYS SO?

Everybody Who has Used Them and Some of Them are East Liverpool People.

Who told you so? Neighbor So-and-so. Oh, well! That's all right. Testimony differs, doesn't it? The more some people say The less faith we have. But the right man's word Is taken at once. That's the difference. People want East Liverpool reference, Particularly in matters of health. We tell you Doan's Kidney Pills cure, But we are the makers of them. "Who says so" counts here, doesn't it? East Liverpool people say so, And we give you their addresses. Perhaps you may know them. Active lives bring on kidney troubles. An example of this is:

Mr. G. H. Garner, of 168 Jackson st., the well-known manufacturer of ice cream, says: "I think my trouble started from a cold. It set in with a soreness and stiffness over my whole body; my appetite was poor, and I was troubled a good deal with a bloating at the stomach. There was also a urinary difficulty, and I felt in fact generally used up and as though I was breaking down. I tried two or three different remedies, but they did not do me the least good. I seem if anything to be getting worse. Having heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of I made up my mind I would try them and procured a box at the W. and W. Pharmacy. I had not taken over half the box before I was entirely free from all my trouble, my appetite good and my old time vigor restored. I have recommended them to many of my friends, among them Mr. P. J. Green, V. S., and they all speak of them in the highest terms. I can honestly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills in every particular, knowing them to be a No. 1 and well worth a trial by anyone."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents, or sent by mail by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE

REPORTS OF ENTERTAINMENTS

The Young Womans' Home Has Been Doing Very Well, and the Evangelistic Department Accomplished Much—Leaflets Distributed.

The report of the Woman's Christian Temperance union for the year is interesting, showing as it does what good work the ladies have been doing. The report is as follows:

"The number of regular business meetings was 24 and of special meetings eight. Mrs. Trego was with us in December holding a series of evangelistic meetings, closing by a rousing meeting in the opera house. The collection was $15, and there were 1,200 earnest listeners. Jan. 22 Doctor Tracy came and was with us 10 days giving his wonderful illustrated lectures in the opera house which was filled every night. Over 800 signed the pledge. March 9, Reverend Naylor delivered an impressive temperance lecture in the Young Men's Christian association auditorium. The collection was $7.28. Miss Anna Shaw was with us March 13, and entertained us on the subject 'The American Home.' The tickets amounted to $36.90. Miss Eva Shontz gave us an interesting entertainment March 30 for the Woman's Temple fund. The collection was $11.74 and from the temple wheels we realized $29. An entertainment on Washington's birthday at the Young Woman's Home, in spite of the rain netted $4.45. May 27 a grand entertainment and festival was given at the auditorium by the young women from which $41 was realized.

"The Christmas treat given at the opera house to poor children not connected with any of the churches or Sabbath schools was one of the happiest occasions in our whole year's work. Many bags of good things were distributed, as were books, toys, hats, caps, etc., donated by our good people. Aside from this, Mrs. Carrie Swan arranged and carried out 'Santa Claus Boys,' which was pleasing to the older persons, as well as the children.

"The leaflets distributed were 'Substitutes for Alcohol in Medicine,' 'Alcohol Warmth' and 'Honest Doctors.' Two wall pockets were placed in the depot and one in the street car station. The number of papers was 1,984; magazines, 8; leaflets, 600. Papers have been distributed in depot, fire station, street car stations, jails, barber shops. The pocket at the depot has been refilled every week. Temperance Sunday was observed in all the churches and Sabbath schools, and five wall pledges have been placed in Sabbath schools.

"Bulletins have been put in the hands of all teachers in the public schools, the schools have been visited, and through the efforts of the board last year the temperance lesson is taught in all the rooms.

"The homes of the poor and sick have been visited, 48 visits being made. While food and clothing have been given. Much good has been done by the Young Women's home. Many wayward ones have been protected and fed, and sick and dying ones have been cared for. Two deaths occurred last winter, a lady 72 years of age and a young woman of 30. How often they expressed thankfulness for the good care and love manifested by the matron and ladies of the home. The hearts of our good citizens have been touched to the extent that they are reaching down into their pockets and giving us help such as we have never had before."

The report of the secretary is as follows:

Receipts—Donations $19.35, lectures $120.24, dues $36, total $175.59. Expenditures—State dues $16, county $13.30, the work $156.29, total $179.59.

Report of the home is as follows: Receipts—Boarders $1,059.37, donations $180.36, fruits and furnishings $50, total $1,289.73. Expenditures $1,234.42. The report is signed by Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Curry, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Rezer.

Collided With a Horse.

Miss Luella McKinnon, of East End, last evening while riding her wheel ran into a horse and buggy in Mulberry street. The lady was not injured, but the rim of her bicycle was broken.

Finished the Work.

REDUCING FARES.

A Movement to Reduce Street Car Fares Now on Foot.

And now there is talk of an organized movement to force the reduction of street car fares. The movement is national in its scope; at least it is said to embrace nearly all the large cities in the country. It originated in Boston, where it is said to assume proportions sufficient to command attention. Three cents is the figure set, and those engineering the movement seem to have gone about the matter in a practical, businesslike way. In Boston a "citizens' committee" has been formed, with Robert Treat Paine, Jr., for president, William L. Rutan treasurer and Charles M. Cox secretary. Among the vice presidents are Dr. Edward Everett Hale, Thomas Wentworth Higginson, Robert Treat Paine, Sr., and Josiah Quincy. There are committees on publication, on public meetings and on petitions. Appeals have been sent out to all of the leading cities in the United States to form citizens' committees, to hold meetings and collect facts and figures to be used later on before city councils and state legislatures.

St. Louis is on the list, but the names of the persons who are intrusted with the mission of forming a society have not been disclosed as yet. The street railway men profess ignorance on the subject. When clippings from Boston, Cleveland and Chicago papers were shown them, proving that societies in those three cities had been formed, they expressed no surprise. They said, however, that passengers could not be carried for 3 cents. Captain Robert McCulloch said: "I do not think the movement will amount to anything. At present many of the local roads talk of building extensions and additions, but let a society be formed for the express purpose of reducing the fare and the roads will not build. It will surely have the effect of paralyzing the street railway business for some years to come. There is not a street railway in the country that can carry a passenger for 3 cents and even pay operating expenses."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

RAN WILD IN THE WOODS.

Crazed by Religious Excitement, a Young Woman Escapes From Her Home.

Rev. J. W. Daugherty, founder and pastor of the Apostolic church in Fulton, Va., has created a sensation, both in his community and in Salem, among those who incline to his faith by what is claimed to be a miraculous spiritual operation performed by him. While holding a revival at Bonsack, near Roanoke, he accepted an urgent invitation from Mr. S. D. Goode of Salem to visit his daughter, Miss Anna A. Goode, who lost her reason because of religious zeal and as a result of a sermon that she heard on hell. Miss Goode was formerly a very intelligent young woman and was amanuensis for D. B. Strause, the wealthy banker of Salem, who gave up business for evangelistic work.

Mr. Daugherty found her running wild in the woods, and she took him to be Jesus Christ and obeyed his order to go to the house. The preacher, who believes in divine healing, had prayers and anointed the girl with oil and left her apparently rational. He has since received a very intelligent letter from her, but news now comes that Miss Goode has had a relapse, been adjudged insane and sent to the State hospital.—Washington Post.

ALIVE, BUT BURIED.

A Man Lives to Tell of Ten Minutes in a Grave.

Patrick Clarke was buried for ten minutes recently, his grave being a new sewer. He was put down the regulation five feet and has become a convert to cremation since he went into the trench to make a connection at Fifty-ninth street and Western avenue. The earth, acting as a sexton for itself, fell over its own edge and on Clarke. He did not yell, or if he did it made no difference, since five feet of dirt was between him and daylight.

Inspector James J. Barrett of the city sewerage department saw the accident and called to Contractor Hilliard. They both grabbed shovels and jumped into the pit. They dug with a vengeance, and in ten minutes came to Clarke, who was safe and sound and happy.

It may be of use to science and the health department to know that Clarke was able to breathe through five feet of sand. Clarke says he had time to ask forgiveness for all the bad things he had done in his life.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Just Heard of McKinley's Election.

George L. Ticknor, who has seen little of civilization for 20 years, came down to Winsted, Pa., from the mountains recently to learn who had been elected president last November. After being told he returned to his cabin among the rocks. Before he went to the war he was in love, and when he returned his sweetheart had either gone away or married. Then he went into the woods and built the cabin where he has since lived.—Philadelphia Record.

Respite for Two Weeks.

ATLANTA, June 12.—Terrell Hudson, colored, sentenced to hang at Decatur for the murder in November last of Seab Malcolm, another negro, with whom he quarreled about a dog, has been respite for two weeks.

WAS AT WATERLOO.

INTERESTING REMINISCENCES OF AN OLD SOLDIER.

Deserted From the British Army While Stationed in Canada—The Queen to Be Petitioned to Grant Him an Honorable Discharge.

Living in the busy city of Lynn, Mass., spending the last days of a momentous and dramatic life, honored by all who know him, is John Henry Beard, one of the few survivors of the battle of Waterloo.

This man, nearing the century mark in life, is still in possession of all his faculties and is looking forward with much pleasure to June 21, when he will be the special guest of the Englishmen of the commonwealth of Massachusetts at the celebration of the anniversary of the coronation of Queen Victoria.

"Once an Englishman, always an Englishman," is his idea, but he has nothing but the kindest feelings for the country of his adoption. Still he takes great interest in the happenings on the other side of the ocean and daily reads the cable dispatches and comments on the changes that have taken place since he shouldered a musket and marched from Brussels to take part in the battle of Waterloo.

Having taken part in this battle, fighting on the side of the victors, is of itself a great distinction, but being among the last survivors of this battle, in which over 250,000 men took part, is to have honor thrust upon him, Mr. Beard thinks.

That the Englishmen of Massachusetts admire the man who fought with Wellington is evidenced by the fact that he will be present at the anniversary ceremonies and be the guest of honor. Not only this, but a monster petition is being prepared, which will be presented to the queen, asking her to grant a discharge to this former soldier of Great Britain.

After an honorable service in the army he left without leave, and, although this was 80 years ago, he desires a discharge, and Ambassador Pauncefote, the representative of England at Washington, has taken such an interest in the old gentleman that there remains but little doubt in his mind that an honorable discharge will be granted him.

It set in with a soreness and stiffness over my whole body; my appetite was poor, and I was troubled a good deal with a bloating at the stomach. There was also a urinary difficulty, and I felt in fact generally used up and as though I was breaking down. I tried two or three different remedies, but they did not do me the least good. I seem if anything to be getting worse. Having heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of I made up my mind I would try them and procured a box at the W. and W. Pharmacy. I had not taken over half the box before I was entirely free from all my trouble, my appetite good and my old time vigor restored. I have recommended them to many of my friends, among them Mr. P. J. Green, V. S., and they all speak of them in the highest terms. I can honestly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills in every particular, knowing them to be a No. 1 and well worth a trial by any one."

Well Pleased With the Temperance Convention.

PRESIDENT MONROE'S ADDRESS

It Covered the Subject Completely and Was Most Interesting—Resolutions of Thanks—A Poker Game—All the News of Wellsville.

The Woman's Christian Temperance union convention has closed. Throughout it proved one of the best and most interesting ever held in the county.

Mrs. Howard conducted devotional exercises yesterday afternoon, and a paper "Notes of Alarm" by Miss Carrie Chambers of Damascus was enjoyed. A paper "Who Shall Roll Away the Stone" by Miss Alice Bunny, of Salineville, followed. Instead of the conference a number of ministers were introduced. Reverend Littell, Reverend Gamesfelder and Reverend Boland, of Mt. Union, spoke. They vigorously condemned the action of council in turning down the temperance people.

Reverend Boland opened the evening session. Miss Reger sang beautifully and the address of Mrs. Henrietta L. Monroe, of Xenia, state president of the organization, followed. "Our Work For Christ" was her subject, and eloquently did she speak. The question was handled in an able manner, Mrs. Monroe driving home her principal points in a most satisfactory manner. The report of the resolution committee was read by Miss Alice Baum. Thanks were returned to the church people, music committee, and the convention was voted the best since the organization was born. The meeting closed with the benediction.

The delegates returned to their homes this morning well pleased with the convention.

The News of Wellsville.

Mrs. Monroe, of Xenia, stated to the county convention yesterday afternoon that delegates attending the state convention were expected to remain the entire session.

Forty hours devotion will begin at the Immaculate Conception church Sunday at 10, with high mass. Rev. Fathers Halligan, of Wellsville; Thos. Smythe, of East Liverpool, and John Bell, of Salineville, will attend the English speaking people; Rev. Francis Daugherty, of Cleveland, will attend to those speaking Italian, and Reverend Baumgartner, of Dunganon, will attend those of the German. The services will close Tuesday morning.

The Immaculate Conception school will hold interesting commencement exercises at the opera house, Thursday evening, the 24th. An elaborate program has been prepared.

The Crescents will cross bats with the Irondale team at the fair grounds today.

L. Hines, of the West End, lost 15 chickens by poisoning yesterday, the work of some malicious individual.

The Christian or churchgoing people threaten to retaliate on those business men who make the assertion that East Liverpool would get all the liquor trade, etc., if local option prevailed, by purchasing their dry goods, groceries and other supplies in East Liverpool. They say what is good for one faction is certainly good for another.

Geo. Calp and bride, of the West End, were tendered a fine serenade.

Mrs. Robt. Bruce and children, of Logansport, Ind., are visiting here.

George Ferguson, of Liverpool street, was moving an iron truck at the rolling mill yesterday, when the tongue flew up and struck him in the face, breaking his cheek bone. He will be off duty for some time.

Ed Kelley moves out to Spring Grove next Wednesday.

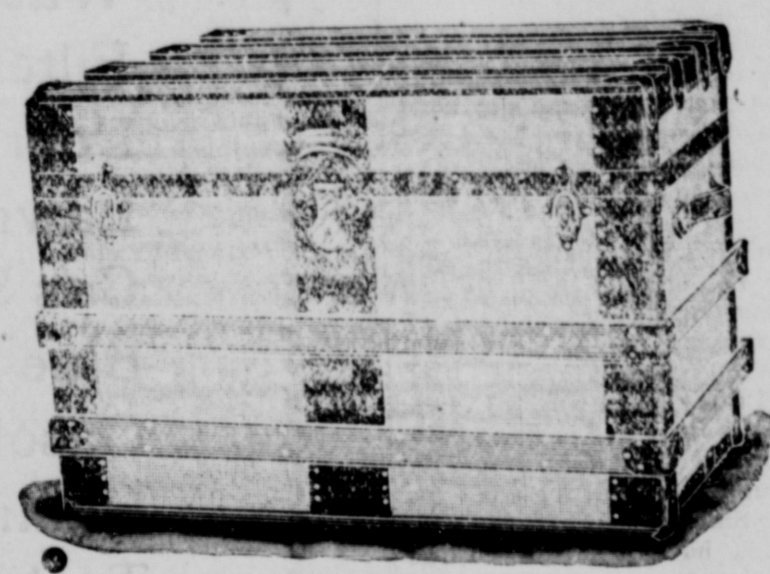

A special congregational meeting of the Christian church will be held tomorrow.

An officer who is noted for his vigilance, went to the West End one day this week to arrest an individual wanted for scrapping. He chased him about the yards, finally almost cornering him in the cellar of a new building in that section, but the fellow escaped and took to the woods. The officer had not been informed of a full-fledged poker game in progress in an upper story of the building, but one of the players observed him enter the cellar and the players made a hasty exit through a window. The officer did not know for a day or two afterward how near he was to the game.

President Michaels, of the city council, says that it is hard to tell what

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. SATURDAY, JUNE 12.

THE HON. DAVID B. HILL seems to have been improving his spare time by laying in a stock of good sense.

THEY say that Weyler has resigned and will return to Spain. That's rather hard on Spain, but she probably deserves it.

BROKER CHAPMAN has been released, his only suffering while in prison having come from being too well fed. It seems much as though justice in this case was only a farce.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY has the happy faculty of saying the right thing at the right time. His utterances at Nashville were timely. They will do much toward convincing the public that we are still away off from the demnition bow wows.

THE NEWS REVIEW has arranged to give its readers a complete report of the Robison murder trial. There will be no sensationalism, nothing but what can be read in every home in the city, but the case will be faithfully followed from start to finish.

SOME of the Democrats who are each posing as McLean's particular candidate for governor, will awaken from their dream of ambition after a while to a knowledge of the fact that Johnny is working for himself this year, and has no candidate except Mr. McLean.

THE average East Liverpool man will sadly shake his head and think of other times and other projects when he reads in the NEWS REVIEW tonight that someone is talking another railroad. But because other plans have failed of realization is no reason why there is not something in this one. Who knows but what the long desired is about to come to pass?

THE BIG SNAG.

It is extremely unfortunate for this country that the sugar trust can at this time wield an influence so far reaching and so powerful. It is virtually holding up the tariff law and preventing its passage, thus delaying conditions without which the country cannot attain any considerable degree of prosperity. Any number of staunch Republican senators are chafing under the enforced delay, knowing that every day lost just now means that much campaign material for the demagogue.

PUBLIC LIBRARY PICNIC.

The indications are that this picnic will be the event of the season. The object is a worthy one, and should have the hearty approval and support of all our citizens. It is understood that it will be a half holiday occasion. The NEWS REVIEW wishes the project the success it so richly deserves. Every penny invested in education is an investment in favor of good morals and lawabiding work, and against evil and disorder. Put your shoulder to the wheel and help push the library picnic along next Tuesday.

LYNCHING IN TWO STATES.

They lynched a negro in Ohio last week, and a few days later another negro lost his life through a mob in Maryland. The Ohio people openly boasted of their contempt for the law, and there are some who so far forget themselves as to find apology for the action. In Maryland the lynchers are fleeing from justice. The law has made its force already felt. No man can be found who knows anything of the tragedy. Compare them. Does it speak well for Ohio? Which community shows the higher civilization, Urbana or Princess Ann?

SANT TRIES IT AGAIN

He Has Made a Motion For a New Trial.

OFFICER MEEHAN ONCE MORE

The Man Who Got Judgment Because the Policeman Shot Him is Experiencing Some Difficulty in Collecting the Account.

LISBON, June 12.—[Special.]—John Sant has filed a motion for a new trial in his case against Liverpool and members of the old council.

W. S. Risher, of Wellsville, has applied to probate court to determine the financial standing of William Meehan in order that the verdict rendered Risher at the last October term of court may be satisfied. Risher recovered damages from Meehan for $562.50 in an action brought to recover on Meehan's bond, who, as marshal of Wellsville, violated the rules of his office by shooting Risher, who was escaping from his custody. Meehan claims that his home is owned by his wife, and exempt from execution. On this account all efforts to secure the amount have been unsuccessful. Meehan will be before the court next Saturday, when the ownership of the property will be determined.

The will of the late Nancy McDonald has been admitted. She gave the greater part of her estate to Edna and Mary Riley, her great grandchildren. In the event of their death without issue one-half will go to the Methodist Episcopal church. W. H. Riley was appointed executor. The appraisers are H. C. Wells, John D. Murdock, George B. Aten.

John Schrader appealed to common pleas from the judgment of Squire Rose in the case where the Vulcan Clay company recovered from him. It was alleged that Schrader owed the Vulcan company $90. When the case was tried the company got judgment.

Marriage licenses were granted T. H. Hall and Emma Harrison, East Liverpool; O. C. Black and Elizabeth Naas, Wellsville.

STITT WAS SCARED.

He Was Afraid of a Man Like Pat Malone.

LISBON, June 12.—[Special.]—Elias Stitt was brought here last night from Salineville in order that the authorities might decide on his sanity. He was put in a cell with Patrick Malone, and they soon began to talk. He questioned Malone about his identity, and he told him he was about to be taken to the penitentiary for killing a man in Wellsville. That frightened Stitt almost out of his wits, and, with a yell which echoed and re-echoed through the corridors of the old jail, he sprang into the upper berth and remained there the whole night as though in great fear of Malone.

John Bancks Did Not Have to Be a Mind Reader.

"John," said Mrs. Bancks as she came in from outside radiant with news, "I've been over to Mrs. Smith's for a few minutes"—

"Few minutes," interrupted Mr. Bancks, looking at his watch. "One hour and 20 minutes, for I timed you."

"Well, I like that, John Bancks. Who asked you to keep tally on me?"

"I wanted to go out myself this evening, but it's too late now."

"I just ran over to tell Mrs. Smith"—

"Yes, I know. You just put a shawl over your head like any other neighborhood woman and carried back six eggs you borrowed of her yesterday."

"John"—

"And she told you that Johnny had the mumps and Mrs. Jones' Jimmy had the measles and lent you a pattern of a new sleeve"—

"John Bancks"—

"She also told you that if Smith didn't give up going out nights and stay home with her and the children, she'd pack up and go home to her mother."

"Oh, you listened, did you, John Bancks?"

"I haven't left this chair since you went out. You brought the bowl that you took over the eggs in back with you full of chili sauce and promised to return it when you made yours."

"Before I'd spy on a woman! Supposing I did, is there any harm in it?"

"Not a bit. I only wanted to save you the trouble of repeating what you said to Mrs. Smith and what she said to you. You haven't mentioned the scandal yet."

"What scandal?"

"The one Mrs. Smith whispered to you and told you never to breathe to a soul as long as you lived."

"John Bancks, are you a mind reader?"

"I don't need to be where you and Mrs. Smith are concerned. I know the signs."

"John!"

"Yes, Mary."

"Just tell me one thing. How did you know about the eggs?"

"Heard you tell the dairyman when he called this morning that you wanted six extra to return some you had borrowed."

"Oh! And about the scandal?"

"It's in tonight's paper and has just struck Mrs. Smith."

"Thanks, John Bancks. You have missed your vocation. You would have made a first class detective. Too bad that so much talent should be thrown away on the home circle!" And Mrs. Bancks went out and slammed the door. —Detroit Free Press.

NOT EASILY MOVED.

True Story of What Was Needed to Get a Move on Mr. Blank.

A pretty girl living near New York is affected with a large number of would be beans, but has no use for any of them. For one, in particular, she had less than no use.

He showed up one evening in a bicycle suit, and while he sat in the parlor with the pretty girl the pretty girl's little brother sewed the bicycle cap firmly down to the corner of the hall table and then dumped all the oil from the caller's bicycle lamp. But Mr. Blank never murmured while he picked the stitches from his cap as he said good night and walked the 2 1/4 miles home without a complaint.

Of course the pretty girl thought that Mr. Blank would never show up again and gave little brother half a dozen bear hugs as a reward for bouncing him. But ten days later Mr. Blank appeared again as if nothing had happened, this time in evening dress with a silk hat. It was an awful hot night, but little brother was on deck just the same, and a thin slice of limburger cheese went under the lining of that hat before the evening was over.

Mr. Blank did not depart until 11:30 that evening, but nothing was ever heard of the cheese. This time the pretty girl and little brother made bets that Mr. Blank would never call again, but Mr. Blank did call again and with a smile on his innocent, round face. At about 9:30 little brother strolled into the parlor and walking up to the clock pushed the hands around a couple of hours ahead and strolled out again silently. Mr. Blank went early that evening and has not been back since. —New York Sun.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, JUNE 12.

THE HON. DAVID B. HILL seems to have been improving his spare time by laying in a stock of good sense.

THEY say that Weyler has resigned and will return to Spain. That's rather hard on Spain, but she probably deserves it.

BROKER CHAPMAN has been released, his only suffering while in prison having come from being too well fed. It seems much as though justice in this case was only a farce.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY has the happy faculty of saying the right thing at the right time. His utterances at Nashville were timely. They will do much toward convincing the public that we are still away off from the demnition bow wows.

THE NEWS REVIEW has arranged to give its readers a complete report of the Robison murder trial. There will be no sensationalism, nothing but what can be read in every home in the city, but the case will be faithfully followed from start to finish.

SOME of the Democrats who are each posing as McLean's particular candidate for governor, will awaken from their dream of ambition after a while to a knowledge of the fact that Johnny is working for himself this year, and has no candidate except Mr. McLean.

THE average East Liverpool man will sadly shake his head and think of other times and other projects when he reads in the NEWS REVIEW tonight that someone is talking another railroad. But because other plans have failed of realization is no reason why there is not something in this one. Who knows but what the long desired is about to come to pass?

THE BIG SNAG.

It is extremely unfortunate for this country that the sugar trust can at this time wield an influence so far reaching and so powerful. It is virtually holding up the tariff law and preventing its passage, thus delaying conditions without which the country cannot attain any considerable degree of prosperity. Any number of staunch Republican senators are chafing under the enforced delay, knowing that every day lost just now means that much campaign material for the demagogue.

PUBLIC LIBRARY PICNIC.

The indications are that this picnic will be the event of the season. The object is a worthy one, and should have the hearty approval and support of all our citizens. It is understood that it will be a half holiday occasion. The NEWS REVIEW wishes the project the success it so richly deserves. Every penny invested in education is an investment in favor of good morals and lawabiding work, and against evil and disorder. Put your shoulder to the wheel and help push the library picnic along next Tuesday.

LYNCHING IN TWO STATES.

They lynched a negro in Ohio last week, and a few days later another negro lost his life through a mob in Maryland. The Ohio people openly boasted of their contempt for the law, and there are some who so far forget themselves as to find apology for the action. In Maryland the lynchers are fleeing from justice. The law has made its force already felt. No man can be found who knows anything of the tragedy. Compare them. Does it speak well for Ohio? Which community shows the higher civilization, Urbana or Princess Ann?

OFFICER MEEHAN ONCE MORE

The Man Who Got Judgment Because the Policeman Shot Him is Experiencing Some Difficulty in Collecting the Account.

LISBON, June 12.—[Special.]—John Sant has filed a motion for a new trial in his case against Liverpool and members of the old council.

W. S. ## THAT ROAD AGAIN

Are We to Have a Competing Railway?

LOOKS A LITTLE LIKE IT

Right of Way Men Have Been Hard at Work,

BUT FEW PEOPLE WILL TALK

A Number of Property Owners in and About Wellsville Have Been Approached Within the Past Few Weeks as To the Cost of Land—Manufacturers Have Also Been Interviewed—There Are Some Who Believe the C. L. & W. Would Like to Come Up the Valley From Bridgeport—Others Remember the Canton & Liverpool.

There is a revival of railroad talk. As yet it is on a small scale and has not reached Liverpool, but that there are reasons for its existence no one will deny when they hear that the agents of some body or some company have been quietly questioning manufacturers and property owners, the first as to the support they would give a new railroad, and the others as to the cost of right of way.

The story comes from Wellsville, and has behind it the endorsement of some of the best known men of that vicinity. They will not allow the use of their names, for the simple reason that they are not in position to talk, but they have talked, and talked freely, to a representative of the NEWS REVIEW. Their opinions differ. Some of them believe the project will result in the construction of a railroad, others declare they have heard so much of competing railroads in this valley that they will believe nothing until they see the trains speeding along the rails.

It seems that a few weeks ago the manufacturers of Wellsville were asked their opinion of a new road. The letters contained a number of questions, and they were invited to give an opinion, at the same time pledging their support in the way of freight. About the same time a number of parties who own property in town and near by were visited by a man whose name they will not give out. He wanted to know what could be expected in right of way if the road was built, or what prices would be asked. He had a rough sketch of the country through which the road is expected to pass, and named other towns where right of way had already been secured. From Steubenville up the river to a point beyond Toronto, the agent seemed to have been making excellent progress. The NEWS REVIEW asked one well known citizen what he knew of the project. The answer was a smile, which evolved itself into the statement that while he knew something about it he would not be quoted as saying anything. He acknowledged that the movement was well started.

The opinion is general that the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling railroad is at the bottom of the matter. The line is a part of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton system, having been absorbed by that company several years ago. A large amount of money was spent in improvements, and the terminals on the lake were made among the best in Ohio. It has been known for several years that the company would like to get into Pittsburg, and its best route was the river valley from Bridgeport, the southern terminus. The presence of Superintendent Bruner in Wellsville not long ago also has something to do with the story.

TO BREAK UP A GANG

Mayor Gilbert Sent William Race to Lisbon.

William Race, a junk dealer, was before the mayor this morning charged by A. J. Boyce with buying from minors. He will be taken to Lisbon because he could not pay a fine of $10.

Within the last few days a number of boys have been stealing iron from potteries and foundries. They were caught when at Mr. Boyce's place. The police propose to break up the practice, and already have the names of a dozen who will be carefully watched.

BEATS THE WORLD

All the People Are Asking For His Shoe Bargains.

Have you heard of the great reductions made in shoes by Will H. Gass? It is simply wonderful, and embraces every shoe in every department in his splendid shoe house—shoes for men, women and children; the very best shoes manufactured. Over 1000 pairs of men's tan shoes, at prices which actually scare other shoe merchants and delight those who are needing footwear. Call early, as shoes are going with a rush.

A FACTORY.

It Will Soon Be Located in the East End.

A Snake in a Pottery.

Engineer McShane, of the Thompson pottery, killed a four-foot black snake yesterday. The snake was noticed as it was about to fall from a pipe on which it was crawling, and after several workmen secured clubs a battle was on. Several blows were struck, and within a short time the snake was dead.

In Good Condition.

The finance committee of the Grand Army met last evening and heard some very favorable reports. The subscriptions to the Memorial fund are steadily increasing, and the committee are meeting with very flattering success in their work of soliciting funds. It is expected the contract for the building will be let next week.

Out on Their Wheels.

THE LITTLE ONES' DAY

Will Be Observed In the Churches Tomorrow.

SPECIAL SERVICES ARRANGED

There Will Be Music and Flowers, the Exercises Being in Charge of the Sunday Schools—The Regular Announcements.

Tomorrow is Children's Day and as such it will be observed. In the churches special programs have been arranged, and there will be excellent music and a profusion of flowers. The Sunday schools will have charge of the exercises, and in few churches will the regular services be held. The Christian church decided, because of the recent moving, to postpone its exercises until the last Sunday of the month.

Christian church, Prof. O. S. Reed, pastor—Morning subject "Exposition of the Third Chapter of Hebrews;" in the evening "Christ In Prophecy."

The Time Is Short.

The question of the hour is, are you in the market for the best line of clothing in America? We must sell this stock at some low price. We have a customer for our stock when reduced to a certain point.

We are nearing that point very rapidly therefore, we say again the time is short, and if you are needing a spring suit, now is your opportunity to purchase at less price than manufacturer's price. Remember all is for sale, stock, fixtures and lease. All must go quickly at some price, as we are positively retiring from the business, and anxious to do so as quickly as possible. We say you can get prices of us that no firm in the state of Ohio can offer. Don't delay. This is an important matter for you.

Mothers, bring your boys. Buy Suits for them at lowest prices ever named in the city.

THAT ROAD AGAIN

Are We to Have a Competing Railway?

LOOKS A LITTLE LIKE IT

Right of Way Men Have Been Hard at Work,

BUT FEW PEOPLE WILL TALK

A Number of Property Owners in and About Wellsville Have Been Asked About Wellsville the Past Few Weeks as to the Cost of Land—Manufacturers Have Also Been Interviewed—There Are Some Who Believe the C. L. & W. Would Like to Come Up the Valley From Bridgeport—Others Remember the Canton & Liverpool.

There is a revival of railroad talk. As yet it is on a small scale and has not reached Liverpool, but that there are reasons for its existence no one will deny when they hear that the agents of somebody or some company have been quietly questioning manufacturers and property owners, the first as to the support they would give a new railroad, and the others as to the cost of right of way.

The story comes from Wellsville, and has behind it the endorsement of some of the best known men of that vicinity. They will not allow the use of their names, for the simple reason that they are not in position to talk, but they have talked, and talked freely, to a representative of the NEWS REVIEW. Their opinions differ. Some of them believe the project will result in the construction of a railroad, others declare they have heard so much of competing railroads in this valley that they believe nothing until they see the trains speeding along the rails.

It seems that a few weeks ago the manufacturers of Wellsville were asked their opinion of a new road. The letters contained a number of questions, and they were invited to give an opinion, at the same time pledging their support in the way of freight. About the same time a number of parties who own property in town and near by were visited by a man whose name they will not give out. He wanted to know what could be expected in right of way if the road was built, or what prices would be asked. He had a rough sketch of the country through which the road is expected to pass, and named other towns where right of way had already been secured. From Steubenville up the river to a point beyond Toronto, the agent seemed to have been making excellent progress. The NEWS REVIEW asked one well known citizen what he knew of the project. The answer was a smile, which evolved itself into the statement that while he knew something about it he would not be quoted as saying anything. He acknowledged that the movement was well started.

The opinion is general that the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling railroad is at the bottom of the matter. The line is a part of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton system, having been absorbed by that company several years ago. A large amount of money was spent in improvements, and the terminals on the lake were made among the best in Ohio. It has been known for several years that the company would like to get into Pittsburgh, and its best route was the river valley from Bridgeport, the southern terminus. The presence of Superintendent Bruner in Wellsville not long ago also has something to do with the story.

There are others who believe this activity comes from the officials of the projected Canton and East Liverpool. They give nothing in support of the statement, but invariably shake their heads and look wise.

TO BREAK UP A GANG

Mayor Gilbert Sent William Race to Lisbon.

William Race, a junk dealer, was before the mayor this morning charged by A. J. Boyce with buying from minors. He will be taken to Lisbon because he could not pay a fine of $10.

Within the last few days a number of boys have been stealing iron from potteries and foundries. They were caught when at Mr. Boyce's place. The police propose to break up the practice, and already have the names of a dozen who will be carefully watched.

BEATS THE WORLD

All the People Are Asking For His Shoe Bargains.

Have you heard of the great reductions made in shoes by Will H. Gass? It is simply wonderful, and embraces every shoe in every department in his splendid shoe house—shoes for men, women and children; the very best shoes manufactured. Over 1000 pairs of men's tan shoes, at prices which actually scare other shoe merchants and delight those who are needing footwear. Call early, as shoes are going with a rush.

A FACTORY.

It Will Soon Be Located in the East End.

Thompson Anderson is authority for the statement that a large manufacturing concern will soon be located in East End. He refuses to tell what it is, but says the deal will be closed the early part of next week.

A Snake in a Pottery.

Engineer McShane, of the Thompson pottery, killed a four-foot black snake yesterday. The snake was noticed as it was about to fall from a pipe on which it was crawling, and after several workmen secured clubs a battle was on. Several blows were struck, and within a short time the snake was dead.

In Good Condition.

The finance committee of the Grand Army met last evening and heard some very favorable reports. The subscriptions to the Memorial fund are steadily increasing, and the committee are meeting with very flattering success in their work of soliciting funds. It is expected the contract for the building will be let next week.

Out on Their Wheels.

S. T. Herbert and Gardner Minchart left this afternoon for a bicycle trip to Youngstown.

Will and Homer Taylor rode their wheels to Steubenville this afternoon.

Irwin Dunlap this morning rode to Leetonia.

Liverpool at Steubenville.

The seventh annual convention of the Epworth league of the Steubenville district will be held in Steubenville July 1-2. Reverend Salmon, Miss Pearl Sebring and Miss Stella McNutt will take part.

Maccabees Hold Services.

Tomorrow is the annual decoration day of the Maccabees, and in the afternoon the lodge will decorate the graves of their departed members. Appropriate services will be held.

The Woman's Relief corps strawberry and ice cream social, Y. M. C. A., Saturday evening.

Beautiful Roses.

The NEWS REVIEW returns sincere thanks to Mrs. Will H. Gass for the present of a magnificent bouquet of white and red roses, perfect beauties and rich in fragrance.

Attached Some Money.

Attorney Travis this morning attached $43.05 in the hands of an insurance adjuster to satisfy a judgment given W. H. Travis & Co., against Henry and Maggie McGill.

Henry T. Bradley's Funeral.

The funeral of Henry T. Bradley took place this afternoon, services being held at his residence in Third street. His sons from Fairmount home attended the funeral.

Will Attend the Encampment.

D. J. Smith, Hon. A. H. McCoy and W. T. McCain will leave next Monday for Chillicothe, where they will attend the state encampment of the Grand Army.

A Reception.

A pleasant reception was held last evening at the home of George Buxton in honor of Miss Myrtle Shingleton, who left today for her home in Belmont.

Largely Attended.

The funeral of Patrick Densmore took place this morning, and was largely attended. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Going to Lisbon.

A number of ball players from this city will be signed by the Lisbon team.

At the Elk.

In the Hotel Grand, you get coffee made from the East Liverpool Ice company's Hygeia water. Try it.

THE LITTLE ONES' DAY

Will Be Observed in the Churches Tomorrow.

SPECIAL SERVICES ARRANGED

There Will Be Music and Flowers, the Exercises Being in Charge of the Sunday Schools—The Regular Announcements.

Tomorrow is Children's Day and as such it will be observed. In the churches special programs have been arranged, and there will be excellent music and a profusion of flowers. The Sunday schools will have charge of the exercises, and in few churches will the regular services be held. The Christian church decided, because of the recent moving, to postpone its exercises until the last Sunday of the month.

Christian church, Prof. O. S. Reed, pastor—Morning subject "Exposition of the Third Chapter of Hebrews;" in the evening "Christ in Prophecy."

CAREY IS DOING WELL

An Excellent Week's Record
With the Athletics.

PERCY ALBRIGHT WAS RELEASED

The Official Announcement—Toledo Thinks
McNicol Will Improve With Age—A Few Local Games—Mercer is Doing Some Tall Hitting.

Official notice is published this week
of the release of Percy Albright by the Saginaw club of the Michigan State League.

Syracuse has released Jimmy Grove,
and he has been signed by Patterson.

George Carey is playing a great game
at first for the Athletics, and has a record in the last six games of three runs, eight hits, 71 putouts, no assists and
one error.

Alf Shaw has caught three games this week for Syracuse, and had two runs,
two hits, 13 putouts, two assists and no
errors.

Bobby Cargo is hitting the ball hard with Newark, but his fielding is not of the gilt-edged order.

The Toledo Blade says: "McNicol
probably played his last game with Toledo yesterday. He has not been a success, but may do better as age ripens his muscles, eyes and intellect."

The ball game at Rock Spring last evening between the Chester and Thompson teams resulted in a victory
for the latter, 21 to 6.

A picked team from this city yesterday defeated the Beaver Falls picnickers
18 to 0.

The Eclipse team left this morning
for Toronto where they will play ball
this afternoon. They will lineup:
Davis, c; Lynch, p; Headley, short; H.
Davis, first; McCullough, second;
Clarke, third; McCurran, left; Gillespie, middle; Callahan, right; McShane and Bricelin, substitutes.

Winnie Mercer, in the last two games
he has played, in seven times at the bat
has made five hits.

The East Liverpool team will play the Three A's, of Allegheny, next Friday
and Saturday at Rock Spring.

A morning paper says: "At his own request George McNicol has been released by Manager Strobel, of the Toledo team. Mac was injured in a game at
New Castle, recently. Manager Strobel says McNicol's injury is a big loss to the team."

Came Home on a Train.

Reverend Charles O'Meara, while riding a bicycle near Smith's Ferry yesterday, was thrown off by the wheel sinking in a mud hole. Aside from his clothing being torn he was not otherwise injured, and came back on the 7:15
train last evening.

Special Notice.

A special meeting of Trades and Labor council will be held in council chamber,
city hall, on Friday evening, June 11, at 7:30 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

CHARLES MACAULAY,
Secretary.

To Test a Field.

Buchheit, Whittenber & Buchheit
have leased 165 acres of land east of Smith's Ferry on the Brown farm, and will commence Monday to drill for oil.
The field will be thoroughly tested, and a number of holes will be put down.

New Houses in Chester.

There are several new houses being erected in Chester. They were started this week, and it is expected to have them finished within a month. They will be occupied by Liverpool people.

May Change.

It is probable the proposed relay foot races of the Young Men's Christian association will be changed to bicycle races, as it seems a hard matter to secure entries for footraces.

Cars Are Scarce.

Owing to a scarcity of cars only 12
were loaded at the sheds yesterday, and only eight were unloaded at the inbound sheds. Eighty-eight cars were handled during the day.

Angry Hobos.

Several hobos passed through the city
on their way west this morning. They were ejected from a freight near East End and each wore a mad look.

Was Late.

The picnic train going east, last evening, delayed the train due in this city at 7:15, 17 minutes.

A New Physician.

The first physician to open an office in Chester is Doctor Russell, formerly of the east.

JAPANESE MOTHERS.

They Thoroughly Understand the Tender
Care of Children.

It sometimes happens that one sees a young American mother so utterly unfit for the training of children and for the duties of motherhood that one cannot but wonder why it pleased Providence
ever to give her the care of little ones.
This happens sometimes in the case of really estimable women, and I have heard a young mother say sadly that she never quite knew what to do with baby,
it was such a queer little thing, and she was half afraid to touch it. Other young things in the shape of puppies, kittens, or even colts, she knew all about and
was quite at home with, but her own child remained a sort of curiosity and uncanny little being to her till his baby
days were over and he began to share
in his mother's hobbies in a boyish sort
of way.

Now, in Japan a mother like this is an impossibility. She is not interested in politics or in social reforms, neither is she bent on being a social success, nor devoted to any scientific philanthropic work, as are so many of her western sisters. She is par excellence a mother, and one who cannot be rivaled in any other country. No children are so well and carefully tended as hers, and she is patient and gentle with them, never threatening them, if they are unruly,
with corporal punishment, nor raising
her voice and scolding them in the unpleasant way one so often hears in other countries. The Japanese mother is a born kindergartner and enters into the lives of her little ones just as easily as the western kindergartner teacher who has undergone a long period of study and training. To her the duties of motherhood come naturally, for among her nation women who will make good mothers are chosen as wives, and thus
in the course of nature the quality of motherliness is intensified as time goes on, and the race of mothers becomes very superior.

Nowhere is motherhood as respected
as in Japan, and nowhere does the mother receive more attention from both her husband and her children. She is regarded as the maker of the race, and her maternal duties are considered to be exceedingly honorable and to entitle her to the utmost consideration and affection.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

ONE OF THE MEAN ONES.

Might Have Been Mean Enough to Have Stolen His Inheritance.

Four or five preachers, at a preachers'
meeting, or, rather, after the meeting
was over, were discussing some of the peculiar people they had been brought into contact with during their various pastorates.

"The very meanest man I ever knew,"
said a pastor, whose nasal twang betrayed his Yankee origin, "was a married man, though, as a rule, the really meanest men are bachelors for obvious reasons.

"This party was fairly well to do
and expected to be enriched by the death
of an old uncle to the extent of at least $100,000. He was a man of about 45
and was, on the surface, an extremely pious kind of a man, with strict ideas
of biblical interpretations. At this time
the rich old uncle—a millionaire, by the way—was approaching the scriptural limit of human existence—three score and ten—and his pious nephew
had begun to figure on what he was going to do with his share of the old man's fortune. The latter, however, did not hold to scriptural interpretations, but held on until he was 91 years old. Then
he departed, and as per expectation,
when the estate was settled up the pious
nephew received $100,000, more or less.

"He ought to have been satisfied, of course, but he wasn't, and after mouth-ing around about his hard luck, he finally capped the climax by suing the trustees of the residue of the estate,
which had been willed to charity, for
the interest on $100,000 at 6 per cent
for the time that elapsed between the three score and ten limit and the date of the death of his uncle, a period of 21 years 3 months, the whole amount of interest being $127,500. He even went so far as to swear that 6 per cent was too low, and that he could have got 8 right along for the whole time if the old man had died when the Bible said he ought to die. Being in the family, however, he was willing to discount
the rate of interest 25 per cent. Now,
did you ever hear of anything worse
than that?"

And not a man there did.—Washington Star.

JAPAN AGAIN COMPLAINING.

Three More Charges Filed Against the Little Hawaiian Republic.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Hawaiian legation in Washington is advised by three new complaints filed against the Hawaiian government by Japan. One of these charges the Hawaiian customs officials with discriminating against Japanese wine in favor of the California product; another takes exception to an order of the Hawaiian board of immigration to the owners of plantations requiring them
in making contracts for Oriental labor
to make these contracts for two Chinese to one Japanese in every case, and a third complains of an order displacing
a Japanese physician on a plantation.

The legation is also informed that there is no abatement of the Japanese demands on account of Hawaii's position with reference to Japanese immigration.

He Would Not Be Undersold.

Colonel James Tamplin, a veteran of the Mexican and civil wars, is a veritable walking history of the wars, in which he bore himself with much honor.
Colonel Tamplin was reading a paper
recently, when he saw a mention of the president of one of the great railroads
centering in Chicago. "I'll tell you a story about that man," he said. "When we were hanging around Vicksburg
looking for trouble with the 'Johnnies,' there was more or less foraging. I remember this man, then a private in our company, while nosing about the adjoining farms ran across a barrel of cider. Being a good soldier, he promptly confiscated the cider and employed an aged darky to tote it into camp.

"Cider was scarce in those days, and
he rigged up a temporary bar and was soon doing a lively business retailing it
at 10 cents a cup. The barrel stood well back in his tent, and for a time he was so busy filling orders that he paid no attention to a disturbance in the rear of the tent. Then the crowd began to dwindle and he realized that something was wrong. He importuned a passing soldier to sample his wares, but the fellow shook his head and said the price
was too high. 'There's a fellow around here selling cider at 5 cents a glass,' he said.

"The owner of the barrel took a turn around his tent and found a great crowd gathered in the rear. Another member of the company had driven a spigot into
the other end of the barrel and was doing a land office business. Well, he saw the game was up, and rather than be outdone he invited the whole crowd
around in front and told them to pitch
in. He was willing to meet competition, and rather than be undersold on his own goods he would ladle out the cider free.

"I reckon, however," added Colonel Tamplin, "that he had made enough
before the trick was discovered to give him a start in the railroad business, for
I see he has been doing quite well ever
since."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Grant's Patent of Nobility.

During the years of his second administration President Grant was accustomed to spend his summers at Montreal Beach, N. J. Near his cottage was that of Hon. George M. Robeson, secretary of the navy, whose family consisted of his wife, his 4-year-old daughter
Ethel, and his 8-year-old stepson, Richard Aulick, whose father had been a commander in the navy.

It was the custom of all war vessels
to fire a series of salutes as they passed
the secretary's cottage. These were conscientiously returned by young Aulick,
who had mounted a toy cannon at the foot of the flagstaff in front of the house.

One morning while the children were playing with some companions they were startled by the booming of guns,
and rushing to the front yard they beheld great smoke wreaths drifting away
from the United States ship Tallapoosa.
Without further ado Richard applied
the fuse to his gun and acknowledged the salutation. While thus employed the kneeling boy suddenly felt three light blows on his back, and looking up beheld the figure of the president standing beside him. In one hand the nation's chief held a lighted cigar, while in the other the astonished boy saw a toy
sword belonging to his sister Ethel.

"Rise, Richard; I dub thee knight,"
said the rugged old warrior, amid the laughter of several friends who attended
him.

Then, returning his cigar to his lips,
he smiled grimly and resumed his way.

Historic Trees in New York.

On West One Hundred and Fifty-
ninth street and St. Nicholas avenue,
Washington Heights, stand a number of remarkable trees. They were formerly the grounds surrounding the old Jumel
mansion, which is now known as Earle Cliff. They are Egyptian cypress, and have a history, like everything pertaining to this remarkable mansion and its grounds. They were sent as a present to Napoleon Bonaparte from the sultan of Egypt as a gift of honor, but arrived in Havre, France, after the battle of Waterloo. Stephen Jumel, who was in France at the time, and a personal friend of Napoleon, succeeded in gaining an audience with the emperor the night before he was banished to the island of St. Helena. Napoleon presented these trees to Jumel, who brought them to America on the clipper ship Eliza, which he had chartered with the hope of aiding Napoleon to escape to this country. These trees, when brought here, had their native earth still clinging to their roots. They were planted as described above, where they flourished and grew to a large size, spreading out their peculiar branches wide over their adopted soil—a mute reminder of the decay of empires as well as people.

CAREY IS DOING WELL

An Excellent Week's Record
With the Athletics.

PERCY ALBRIGHT WAS RELEASED

The Official Announcement-Toledo Thinks
McNicol Will Improve With Age—A
Tall Hitting.

Official notice is published this week
of the release of Percy Albright by the Saginaw club of the Michigan State League.

Syracuse has released Jimmy Grove,
and he has been signed by Patterson.

George Carey is playing a great game
at first for the Athletics, and has a record in the last six games of three runs,
eight hits, 71 putouts, no assists and
one error.

Alf Shaw has caught three games this week for Syracuse, and had two runs,
two hits, 13 putouts, two assists and no
errors.

Bobby Cargo is hitting the ball hard
with Newark, but his fielding is not of
the gilt-edged order.

The Toledo Blade says: "McNicol
probably played his last game with Toledo yesterday. He has not been a success, but may do better as age ripens his muscles, eyes and intellect."

The ball game at Rock Spring last
evening between the Chester and Thompson teams resulted in a victory
for the latter, 21 to 6.

A picked team from this city yesterday defeated the Beaver Falls picnickers
18 to 0.

The Eclipse team left this morning
for Toronto where they will play ball
this afternoon. They will lineup:
Davis, c; Lynch, p; Headley, short; H.
Davis, first; McCullough, second;
Clarke, third; McCurran, left; Gillespie,
middle; Callahan, right; McShane and Brieclin, substitutes.

Winnie Mercer, in the last two games
he has played, in seven times at the bat
has made five hits.

and Saturday at Rock Spring.

A morning paper says: "At his own
request George McNicol has been released by Manager Strobel, of the Toledo
team. Mac was injured in a game at
New Castle, recently. Manager Strobel
says McNicol's injury is a big loss to the team."

Came Home on a Train.

Reverend Charles O'Meara, while riding a bicycle near Smith's Ferry yesterday, was thrown off by the wheel sinking in a mud hole. Aside from his
wise injured, and came back on the 7:15
train last evening.

Special Notice.

A special meeting of Trades and Labor council will be held in council chamber,
city hall, on Friday evening, June 11, at 7:30 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

CHARLES MACAULAY,
Secretary.

To Test a Field.

Buchheit, Whittenber & Buchheit
have leased 165 acres of land east of Smith's Ferry on the Brown farm, and
will commence Monday to drill for oil.
The field will be thoroughly tested, and
a number of holes will be put down.

New Houses in Chester.

There are several new houses being erected in Chester. They were started
this week, and it is expected to have them finished within a month. They

May Change.

It is probable the proposed relay foot
races of the Young Men's Christian association will be changed to bicycle
races, as it seems a hard matter to secure entries for footraces.

Cars Are Scarce.

Owing to a scarcity of cars only 12
were loaded at the sheds yesterday, and
only eight were unloaded at the inbound
sheds. Eighty-eight cars were handled
during the day.

Angry Hobos.

Several hobos passed through the city
on their way west this morning. They were ejected from a freight near East
End and each wore a mad look.

Was Late.

The picnic train going east, last evening, delayed the train due in this city at

A New Physician.

The first physician to open an office
in Chester is Doctor Russell, formerly of the east.

JAPANESE MOTHERS.

They Thoroughly Understand the Tender
Care of Children.

It sometimes happens that one sees a young American mother so utterly unfit
for the training of children and for the duties of motherhood that one cannot
but wonder why it pleased Providence
ever to give her the care of little ones.
This happens sometimes in the case of
really estimable women, and I have heard a young mother say sadly that she
never quite knew what to do with baby,
it was such a queer little thing, and she was half afraid to touch it. Other young
things in the shape of puppies, kittens,
or even colts, she knew all about and
was quite at home with, but her own child remained a sort of curious and uncanny little being to her till his baby
in his mother's hobbies in a boyish sort
of way.

Now, in Japan a mother like this is an impossibility. She is not interested in politics or in social reforms, neither
is she bent on being a social success, nor devoted to any scientific philanthropic
work, as are so many of her western sisters. She is par excellence a mother,
and one who cannot be rivaled in any
and carefully tended as hers, and she is patient and gentle with them, never threatening them, if they are unruly,
with corporal punishment, nor raising
her voice and scolding them in the unpleasant way one so often hears in other countries. The Japanese mother is a born kindergartner and enters into the lives of her little ones just as easily as the western kindergarten teacher who has undergone a long period of study
and training. To her the duties of motherhood come naturally, for among
her nation women who will make good
mothers are chosen as wives, and thus
in the course of nature the quality of motherliness is intensified as time goes
on, and the race of mothers becomes
very superior.

Nowhere is motherhood as respected
as in Japan, and nowhere does the mother receive more attention from both
her husband and her children. She is regarded as the maker of the race, and
her maternal duties are considered to be exceedingly honorable and to entitle her
to the utmost consideration and affection.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

ONE OF THE MEAN ONES.

Stolen His Inheritance.

Four or five preachers, at a preachers'
meeting, or, rather, after the meeting
was over, were discussing some of the peculiar people they had been brought into contact with during their various pastorates.

"The very meanest man I ever knew,"
said a pastor, whose nasal twang betrayed his Yankee origin, "was a married man, though, as a rule, the really meanest men are bachelors for obvious reasons.

"This party was fairly well to do
and expected to be enriched by the death
of an old uncle to the extent of at least $100,000. He was a man of about 45
and was, on the surface, an extremely
pious kind of a man, with strict ideas
of biblical interpretations. At this time
the rich old uncle—a millionaire, by
the way—was approaching the scriptural limit of human existence—three
score and ten—and his pious nephew
had begun to figure on what he was going to do with his share of the old man's fortune. The latter, however, did not hold to scriptural interpretations, but held on until he was 91 years old. Then
he departed, and as per expectation,
when the estate was settled up the pious
nephew received $100,000, more or less.

"He ought to have been satisfied, of
course, but he wasn't, and after mouth-
ing around about his hard luck, he
finally capped the climax by suing the
trustees of the residue of the estate,
which had been willed to charity, for
the interest on $100,000 at 6 per cent
for the time that elapsed between the three score and ten limit and the date of
the death of his uncle, a period of 21
years 3 months, the whole amount of interest being $127,500. He even went
so far as to swear that 6 per cent was
too low, and that he could have got 8 right along for the whole time if the old man had died when the Bible
said he ought to die. Being in the family, however, he was willing to discount
the rate of interest 25 per cent. Now,
did you ever hear of anything worse
than that?"

And not a man there did.—Washington Star.

JAPAN AGAIN COMPLAINING.

Little Hawaiian Republic.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Hawaiian legation in Washington is advised by three new complaints filed against the Hawaiian government by Japan. One of these charges the Hawaiian customs officials with discriminating against Japanese wine in favor of the California product; another
takes exception to an order of the Hawaiian board of immigration to the owners of plantations requiring them
in making contracts for Oriental labor
to make these contracts for two Chinese
to one Japanese in every case, and a third complains of an order displacing
a Japanese physician on a plantation.

The legation is also informed that there is no abatement of the Japanese
demands on account of Hawaii's position with reference to Japanese immigration.

He Would Not Be Undersold.

Colonel James Tamplin, a veteran of
the Mexican and civil wars, is a veritable walking history of the wars, in which he bore himself with much honor.
Colonel Tamplin was reading a paper
recently, when he saw a mention of the president of one of the great railroads
centering in Chicago. "I'll tell you a story about that man," he said. "When
we were hanging around Vicksburg
looking for trouble with the 'Johnnies,'
there was more or less foraging. I remember this man, then a private in our company, while nosing about the adjoining farms ran across a barrel of cider. Being a good soldier, he promptly confiscated the cider and employed an aged darky to tote it into camp.

"Cider was scarce in those days, and
he rigged up a temporary bar and was soon doing a lively business retailing it
at 10 cents a cup. The barrel stood well
back in his tent, and for a time he was so busy filling orders that he paid no attention to a disturbance in the rear of the tent. Then the crowd began to dwindle and he realized that something
was wrong. He importuned a passing soldier to sample his wares, but the fellow shook his head and said the price
was too high. 'There's a fellow around here selling cider at 5 cents a glass,' he said.

"The owner of the barrel took a turn around his tent and found a great crowd
gathered in the rear. Another member of the company had driven a spigot into
the other end of the barrel and was doing a land office business. Well, he saw
the game was up, and rather than be outdone he invited the whole crowd
around in front and told them to pitch
in. He was willing to meet competition, and rather than be undersold on his own goods he would ladle out the cider free.

"I reckon, however," added Colonel Tamplin, "that he had made enough
before the trick was discovered to give him a start in the railroad business, for
I see he has been doing quite well ever

Grant's Patent of Nobility.

During the years of his second administration President Grant was accustomed to spend his summers at Montreal Beach, N. J. Near his cottage was that of Hon. George M. Robeson, secretary of the navy, whose family consisted of his wife, his 4-year-old daughter
Ethel, and his 8-year-old stepson, Richard Aulick, whose father had been a
commander in the navy.

It was the custom of all war vessels
to fire a series of salutes as they passed
the secretary's cottage. These were conscientiously returned by young Aulick,
who had mounted a toy cannon at the foot of the flagstaff in front of the house.

One morning while the children were playing with some companions they
were startled by the booming of guns,
and rushing to the front yard they be-
held great smoke wreaths drifting away
from the United States ship Tallapoosa.
Without further ado Richard applied
the fuse to his gun and acknowledged the salutation. While thus employed the kneeling boy suddenly felt three light
blows on his back, and looking up be-
held the figure of the president standing beside him. In one hand the nation's chief held a lighted cigar, while in the other the astonished boy saw a toy
sword belonging to his sister Ethel.

"Rise, Richard; I dub thee knight,"
said the rugged old warrior, amid the laughter of several friends who attended
him.

Then, returning his cigar to his lips,
he smiled grimly and resumed his way.

Historic Trees in New York.

On West One Hundred and Fifty-
ninth street and St. Nicholas avenue,
Washington Heights, stand a number of remarkable trees. They were formerly
the grounds surrounding the old Jumel
mansion, which is now known as Earle Cliff. They are Egyptian cypress, and have a history, like everything pertain-

THIS DISTRICT'S PART

In the Big Republican Gathering at Toledo.

WHAT DELEGATES MUST DO

We Do Not Get an Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms—Where the Caucus Will Be Held. Arrangements Have Been Made For a Great Big Time.

TOLEDO, June 12.—[Special]—The general committee on arrangements for the Republican state convention has given out full information regarding the coming convention.

The headquarters of the state committee will be at the Budy House, and W. C. Weirick, of Canton, will be secretary of the delegation from the Eighteenth. No assistant sergeant-at-arms has been selected from this district. Delegate meetings will be held in the court house at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the Eighteenth delegates divided with Stark 24, Mahoning 17, Columbiana 19, meeting in court room No. 3, third floor. At such meetings each district will choose one vice-president and one member for each of the following committees: Credentials resolutions, central committee, rules and order of business, permanent organization.

These committees will be reported to the convention at 4 p. m. (standard time) June 22, and will meet for the transaction of business promptly after adjournment of temporary organization.

Tuesday evening a reception will be tendered Governor Bushnell, Senator Hanna, Senator Foraker and other distinguished guests.

IT'S ANYBODY'S.

Meaning the First Place in the Senatorial Race.

Sagely remarks the Cadiz Republican in speaking of the senatorial matter:

"If Columbiana comes to the convention with a divided delegation, which is the present outlook, with Jefferson solid for Welday, and Harrison uninstructed for anyone, there will be an interesting and uncertain contest, with the chances quite in favor of Welday. But if Columbiana should happen to unite in favor of Blake it would put his chances away up. But as the matter stands at present it may easily happen that the two candidates from Columbiana, the two from Belmont, and the one from Jefferson may all be pretty nearly even on the first ballot in the convention. It is anybody's race up to this time, with the odds in favor of Welday."

THE CURFEW ORDINANCE.

Christian Union Ladies Want to Know About It.

"We wish the NEWS REVIEW would ask if the authorities know of the existence of the curfew ordinance?" said several members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union today. "We cannot see where it is being enforced, nor does it seem that much attention is being given it by the police. If it is not a good law it should be wiped off the books, but if it is what we expected it to be it should be vigorously enforced. It has done much good in Lisbon, and could do it here if the authorities would only do their duty."

TORE OFF THE TIRE.

W. A. Calhoun Alighted From His Wheel In a Hurry.

W. A. Calhoun had a narrow escape last evening while bicycle riding in the old campmeeting road. He was going down the hill beyond the McBane farm when he met a team coming to the city. He did not notice it until he was within five feet of it, and he alighted in a hurry tearing the rear tire from his wheel. Only the prompt work of the driver of the team prevented a collision.

On the River.

Shipments by boat are slack today, and but little freight will be sent down the river this evening. Passed up—Virginia, Smoky City. Down—Voyager, John Moren and H. K. Bedford.

The Queen City will not leave Cincinnati today on account of low water, as her owners do not desire to take any chances of failure on her first trip. She cost nearly $90,000.

LOST FOR TEN CENTURIES.

Ancient Quarries of Prized Thessalian Marble Found.

The quarries from which the ancients obtained their highly prized Thessalian or verd marble have been discovered and are again being worked by an English company. The quarries, which have been lost for more than 1,000 years, are in the neighborhood of Larissa, in Thessaly, Greece. The ancient workings are very extensive, there being no fewer than ten quarries, each producing a somewhat different description of marble, proving without a doubt that every variety of this marble found in the ruined palaces and churches of Rome and Constantinople, and likewise in all of the mosques and museums of the world, came originally from these quarries. In fact, the very quarry from which the famous monoliths of St. Sophia, Constantinople, were obtained can be identified with absolute certainty by the matrices from which they were extracted.

In modern times verd antique marble has only been obtained by the destruction of some ancient work, and it has naturally commanded extraordinarily high prices. As a consequence, a number of ordinary modern greens of Greek, French, Italian and American origin have been described and sold as verd antique marble. No one, however, who is really acquainted with the distinctive character of the genuine material could be deceived by these inferior marbles. Thessalian green is easily distinguished from any other green marble by the following characteristics: It is a "breccia" of angular fragments of light and dark green, with pure statuary white, the whole being cemented together with a brighter green, while the snow white patches have their edges tinted off with a delicate fibrous green, radiating to the center of the white. The cementing material is also of the same fibrous structure.

TRADE WITH VENEZUELA.

American Manufacturers Open a Warehouse at Caracas.

The National Association of Manufacturers of the United States of America decided more than a year ago to establish sample warehouses in foreign countries in which American trade was capable of large development, and the first of these warehouses has been erected in the city of Caracas, Venezuela. Theodore C. Search of Philadelphia, the president of the association, began negotiations a year ago to secure a concession granting certain advantages for the establishment of the warehouse, and the government of Venezuela has granted the concession and has manifested its intention to co-operate earnestly with the association. In January last Rudolf Dolge went to Caracas as the special commissioner of the association to complete the plans for the exhibition of American goods in that city, and he has returned with a report that the plans have been carried out satisfactorily.

The warehouse of the association is a large and imposing building, erected in one of the most prominent parts of Caracas and arranged for the exhibition of goods under the most favorable circumstances. The purpose of the association is to show American goods to the people of Venezuela and enable them to become familiar with articles manufactured in this country, with a view to having the people of Venezuela send their orders for goods to this country.

The government of Venezuela has manifested its friendly disposition by granting to the association the privilege of entering samples for exhibition free of duty until sold. As the duties in Venezuela are exceedingly high, this privilege is of material advantage to those who desire to develop their trade in that country.—New York Tribune.

Penny in the Slot Machines.

According to the Chicago Record, there are in that town more than 500 penny weighing machines, 300 of which are owned by one firm, and the average earnings of each machine are $3 a month. Eighteen thousand dollars a year, all in pennies, is paid by the people for the satisfaction of knowing whether they have "fallen off" or gained and how much since they were weighed last.

Once a month the collector goes to each machine and robs it of its last cent and last slug—for the weighing machine still has an appetite for a particular steel die that is a part of the waste around bicycle works.

A Strong Room.

At Eltham, the late Colonel North's seat, there is said to be one of the strongest of strong rooms in the world. Not only were his gold and silver ware stored here, but special arrangements were made for the security of the jewels of lady visitors during the nights of their stay. The strong room is floored with cement many feet thick and walled all round with mighty blocks of granite.

Weighing Living Fish.

A visitor at the aquarium who had wondered how they managed to get the weight of a live fish learned that that was really a very simple thing to do. The fish is put into a pail of water, which is weighed with the fish in it. Then the fish is taken out and pail and water are weighed without it.—New York Sun.

A Pretty Resort.

A sojourn at Winona Assembly Grounds at Eagle Lake, Ind., near Warsaw, on the Fort Wayne route, will prove a pleasant summer outing. This delightful resort is the site of the youngest of the Chautauqua assemblies, and its attractions combine facilities for recreation, entertainment, instruction and devotion.

Eagle Lake is a beautiful sheet of water, surrounded by several hundred acres of romantic woodland which covers one stretch of nearly two miles. The lake affords opportunity for aquatic pastimes, the boating, bathing and fishing being excellent. In addition to numerous row-boats there are several pleasure steamers on the lake.

The shady grounds are occupied by many pretty cottages and summer homes of persons who annually enjoy the beauties of the place, strengthening body in the invigorating atmosphere and enriching the mind by the special advantages the summer school offers.

A fine park has been laid out on the shore of the lake. A large auditorium, amphitheatre, college halls, hotels and restaurant have also been constructed on the grounds for the accommodation of visitors. There is also a race track and space set aside for out-door athletic sports.

In addition to the Presbyterian General Assembly which will be in session on the Assembly Grounds from May 20 to June 2, a number of other large meetings will be held on the grounds during the summer of 1897, including the Indiana State Sunday School Convention, Western Association of Writers, Indiana State W. C. T. U., Indiana Y. M. C. A., Encampment, National Medical Society, Boys' Brigade, and Indiana State Christian Endeavor Convention.

Excursion tickets to Eagle Lake will be on sale via Pennsylvania Lines during the summer season. Details regarding rates, time of trains, etc., may be ascertained by addressing the nearest passenger or ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines, or by applying to F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa. Full information concerning the Assembly and Summer School, cost of entertainment, etc., may be secured upon application to Secretary Sol. C. Dickey, Eagle Lake, Ind.

Our Society Leaders.

Society in Europe has a certain restricted meaning which enables one to picture to himself what "in society" means. It is not necessarily a brilliant distinction, but it is at least a sufficient intelligible definition. But here "society leader" and "clubman" may mean something or nothing, as the case may be. Here again democracy exaggerates the very sentiments and positions it is supposed to ignore. Every woman with two changes of headgear is a "society woman," and every man with a top hat and two pairs of trousers is a "clubman." One hears, too, more talk about "old families" here than anywhere else. Why it is I know not, unless it be because they secretly feel that they are all so new.—America and Americans From a French Point of View.

A Brand From the Burning.

After the German invasion an officer of the Turkos could not settle down into civic life, but went off to Africa on an exploring expedition. In one of the native villages on the Niger he saw an intelligent, bright looking lad tied up, and on inquiry found that he was being fattened for a feast which was in contemplation in which he was to appear roasted. He bought the lad for a case of Old Tom gin and brought him back to Paris, where he was sent to school, astonishing everybody by his capacity. He has just died in that city, closing a history in which his rescue shines as the most memorable incident.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Excursion.

To Pittsburg, June 13, 14 and 16, excursion tickets at one fare for the round trip will be sold from Alliance, Bellaire, Youngstown, Sharon, Cadiz, Dennison, Wheeling, New Cumberland, Washington, Pa., and intermediate ticket stations on the Pennsylvania lines, account Jr. O. U. A. M. daylight parade and general celebration. Excursion tickets will be good returning until June 17, inclusive.

Low Fare to Pittsburg.

Excursion tickets to Pittsburg for the Jr. O. U. A. M. national council will be sold via Pennsylvania lines June 12, 13 and 14. The sale of tickets will not be restricted to members of the order, but the public generally may take advantage of the reduced rates. Full information may be obtained upon application to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines.

Excursion Tickets to Pittsburg.

Will be sold via Pennsylvania lines June 12, 13 and 14 account Jr. O. U. A. M. national council. Low rate open to public generally. For details apply to the nearest ticket agent of Pennsylvania lines.

—Miss Jennie Brown, of Toronto, is visiting in the city.

Low Rates.

Special reductions in fare over the Pennsylvania lines will be granted for numerous events to take place this summer in various parts of the United States, in addition to local excursions. Some of the points to which tickets will be sold and dates of sale are as follows:

To Nashville, Tenn., daily to October 15, for Tennessee Centennial and International exposition.

To Winona assembly grounds, Eagle Lake, (near Warsaw, Ind.) May 15 to August 31, for annual assembly and summer school.

To Pittsburg, June 12, 13 and 14, account national council, Junior American Mechanics.

To Celeron (Chautauqua Lake,) July 11 and 12, account Photographers Association of America.

To Toronto, Canada, July 13, 14 and 15, for Epworth League National convention.

To Minneapolis, July 3 and 4, for national meeting, B. P. O. Elks.

To Chattanooga, July 13, 14 and 15, account Baptist Young Peoples' union, of America.

To Detroit, July 12 and 13, for National Republican League meeting.

To Cincinnati, July 21 and 22, for German Epworth League meeting.

To Indianapolis, August 17 and 18, for Young People's Christian union annual convention.

To Indianapolis, September 8 and 9, for National Encampment Sons of Veterans.

The reduced rates over the Pennsylvania lines will not be restricted to members of the organizations mentioned, but may be taken advantage of by the public generally. Excursion tickets may be obtained at ticket offices on the Pennsylvania system and will also be sold over this route by connecting railroads. Any Pennsylvania line ticket or passenger agent will furnish desired information concerning rates, time of trains, return limit, and other details, to all applicants, or the same may be obtained by addressing Samuel Moody, assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

New Entrance to New York.

All are convenient locations; Cortlandt street and Desbrosses street, in the downtown district, and Twenty-third street in the uptown district. The latter entrance will be formally opened May 16, when two new, commodious ferryboats, double-deckers, constructed especially for the Pennsylvania lines and furnished and fitted in up-to-date style, will be placed in service between the Jersey City station and Twenty-third street, connecting with all inbound and outbound trains over the Pennsylvania system, the same as the boats running between that station and Cortlandt street and Desbrosses street, which will also continue in the service.

The Pennsylvania lines' three entrances into New York enable passengers to quickly reach the business portion in the lower end of the city, as well as the hotels and business blocks in the very heart of the great metropolis. The ride across the river is a delightful and refreshing termination to an enjoyable trip. All through trains from the west, over the Pennsylvania lines, land passengers in New York between 9:30 a. m., and 9:30 p. m., treating them to a grand view of the city's water front; its extensive docks where at almost any time may be seen ships of many nations. The wonderful panorama gives visitors a slight idea of the magnitude of New York. The new Twenty-third street ferry line is particularly noteworthy in this respect.

Summe Outing.

The principal places of summer sojourn along the Atlantic ocean in the Alleghenies, the Adirondacks, Catskills, and mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan and the northwest, may be readily reached over the Pennsylvania lines.

Special information regarding the leading resorts and the advantages enjoyed in journeying to them over the Pennsylvania route has been compiled and printed in convenient form. The matter is profusely illustrated with photographic reproductions of seashore scenes and includes views at Atlantic City, Cape May, Long Branch and other resorts along the Atlantic coast; also of Cresson, Bedford Springs, and romantic mountain retreats, and of Petoskey, Mackinac, and the summer havens in Michigan and the northwest.

Persons contemplating summer outing trips will find it a valuable guide in shaping preliminaries. Copies may be obtained by addressing D. C. MacWaters, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Excursion to Chillicothe.

June 14, 15 and 16, excursions on tickets will be sold to Chillicothe, O., via Pennsylvania lines for annual encampment, G. A. R., Department of Ohio; return coupons valid June 19, inclusive.

WHAT DELEGATES MUST DO

We Do Not Get an Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms—Where the Caucus Will Be Held, Arrangements Have Been Made For a Great Big Time.

TOLEDO, June 12.—[Special]—The general committee on arrangements for the Republican state convention has given out full information regarding the coming convention.

The headquarters of the state committee will be at the Boody House, and W. C. Weirick, of Canton, will be secretary of the delegation from the Eighteenth. No assistant sergeant-at-arms has been selected from this district. Delegate meetings will be held in the court house at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the Eighteenth delegates divided with Stark 24, Mahoning 17, Columbiana 19, meeting in court room No. 3, third floor. At such meetings each district will choose one vice-president and one member for each of the following committees: Credentials resolutions, central committee, rules and order of business, permanent organization.

These committees will be reported to the convention at 4 p. m. (standard time) June 22, and will meet for the transaction of business promptly after adjournment of temporary organization.

Tuesday evening a reception will be tendered Governor Bushnell, Senator Hanna, Senator Foraker and other distinguished guests.

IT'S ANYBODY'S.

Meaning the First Place in the Senatorial Race.

Sagely remarks the Cadiz Republican in speaking of the senatorial matter:

"If Columbiana comes to the convention with a divided delegation, which is the present outlook, with Jefferson solid for Welday, and Harrison uninstructed for anyone, there will be an interesting and uncertain contest, with the chances quite in favor of Welday. But if Columbiana should happen to unite in favor of Blake it would put his chances away up. But as the matter stands at present it may easily happen that the two candidates from Columbiana, the two from Belmont, and the one from Jefferson may all be pretty nearly even on the first ballot in the convention. It is anybody's race up to this time, with the odds in favor of Welday."

THE CURFEW ORDINANCE.

Christian Union Ladies Want to Know About It.

"We wish the NEWS REVIEW would ask if the authorities know of the existence of the curfew ordinance" said several members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union today. "We cannot see where it is being enforced, nor does it seem that much attention is being given it by the police. If it is not a good law it should be wiped off the books, but if it is what we expected it to be it should be vigorously enforced. It has done much good in Lisbon, and could do it here if the authorities would only do their duty."

TORE OFF THE TIRE.

W. A. Calhoun Alighted From His Wheel In a Hurry.

W. A. Calhoun had a narrow escape last evening while bicycle riding in the old campmeeting road. He was going down the hill beyond the McBane farm when he met a team coming to the city. He did not notice it until he was within five feet of it, and he alighted in a hurry tearing the rear tire from his wheel. Only the prompt work of the driver of the team prevented a collision.

On the River.

Shipments by boat are slack today, and but little freight will be sent down the river this evening. Passed up—Virginia, Smoky City. Down—Voyager, John Moren and H. K. Bedford.

The Queen City will not leave Cincinnati today on account of low water, as her owners do not desire to take any chances of failure on her first trip. She cost nearly $90,000.

The fish is put into a pail of water, which is weighed with the fish in it. Then the fish is taken out and pail and water are weighed without it.—New York Sun.

A Pretty Resort.

A sojourn at Winona Assembly Grounds at Eagle Lake, Ind., near Warsaw, on the Fort Wayne route, will prove a pleasant summer outing. This delightful resort is the site of the youngest of the Chautauqua assemblies, and its attractions combine facilities for recreation, entertainment, instruction and devotion.

Eagle Lake is a beautiful sheet of water, surrounded by several hundred acres of romantic woodland which covers one stretch of nearly two miles. The lake affords opportunity for aquatic pastimes, the boating, bathing and fishing being excellent. In addition to numerous rowboats there are several pleasure steamers on the lake.

The shady grounds are occupied by many pretty cottages and summer homes of persons who annually enjoy the beauties of the place, strengthening body in the invigorating atmosphere and enriching the mind by the special advantages the summer school offers.

A fine park has been laid out on the shore of the lake. A large auditorium, amphitheatre, college halls, hotels and restaurant have also been constructed on the grounds for the accommodation of visitors. There is also a race track and space set aside for out-door athletic sports.

In addition to the Presbyterian General Assembly which will be in session on the Assembly Grounds from May 20 to June 2, a number of other large meetings will be held on the grounds during the summer of 1897, including the Indiana State Sunday School Convention, Western Association of Writers, Indiana State W. C. T. U., Indiana Y. M. C. A., Encampment, National Medical Society, Boys' Brigade, and Indiana State Christian Endeavor Convention.

Excursion tickets to Eagle Lake will be on sale via Pennsylvania Lines during the summer season. Details regarding rates, time of trains, etc., may be ascertained by addressing the nearest passenger or ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines, or by applying to F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa. Full information concerning the Assembly and Summer School, cost of entertainment, etc., may be secured upon application to Secretary Sot. C. Dickey, Eagle Lake, Ind.

Our Society Leaders.

Society in Europe has a certain restricted meaning which enables one to picture to himself what "in society" means. It is not necessarily a brilliant distinction, but it is at least a sufficiently intelligible definition. But here "society leader" and "clubman" may mean something or nothing, as the case may be. Here again democracy exaggerates the very sentiments and positions it is supposed to ignore. Every woman with two changes of headgear is a "society woman," and every man with a top hat and two pairs of trousers is a "clubman." One hears, too, more talk about "old families" here than anywhere else. Why it is I know not, unless it be because they secretly feel that they are all so new.—America and Americans From a French Point of View.

A Brand From the Burning.

After the German invasion an officer of the Turks could not settle down into civil life, but went off to Africa on an exploring expedition. In one of the native villages on the Niger he saw an intelligent, bright looking lad tied up, and on inquiry found that he was being fattened for a feast which was in contemplation in which he was to appear roasted. He bought the lad for a case of Old Tom gin and brought him back to Paris, where he was sent to school, astonishing everybody by his capacity. He has just died in that city, closing a history in which his rescue shines as the most memorable incident.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Excursion.

To Pittsburg, June 13, 14 and 16, excursion tickets at one fare for the round trip will be sold from Alliance, Bellaire, Youngstown, Sharon, Cadiz, Dennison, Wheeling, New Cumberland, Washington, Pa., and intermediate ticket stations on the Pennsylvania lines, account Jr. O. U. A. M. daylight parade and general celebration. Excursion tickets will be good returning until June 17, inclusive.

Low Fare to Pittsburg.

Excursion tickets to Pittsburg for the Jr. O. U. A. M. national council will be sold via Pennsylvania lines June 12, 13 and 14. The sale of tickets will not be restricted to members of the order, but the public generally may take advantage of the reduced rates. Full information may be obtained upon application to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines.

Excursion Tickets to Pittsburg.

Will be sold via Pennsylvania lines June 12, 13 and 14 account Jr. O. U. A. M. national council. Low rate open to public generally. For details apply to the nearest ticket agent of Pennsylvania lines.

—Miss Jennie Brown, of Toronto, is visiting in the city.

Low Rates.

Special reductions in fare over the Pennsylvania lines will be granted for numerous events to take place this summer in various parts of the United States, in addition to local excursions. Some of the points to which tickets will be sold and dates of sale are as follows:

To Nashville, Tenn., daily to October 15, for Tennessee Centennial and International exposition.

To Winona assembly grounds, Eagle Lake, (near Warsaw, Ind.,) May 15 to August 31, for annual assembly and summer school.

To Pittsburg, June 12, 13 and 14, account national council, Junior American Mechanics.

To Celeron (Chautauqua Lake,) July 11 and 12, account Photographers Association of America.

To Toronto, Canada, July 13, 14 and 15, for Epworth League National convention.

To Minneapolis, July 3 and 4, for national meeting, B. P. O. Elks.

To Chattanooga, July 13, 14 and 15, account Baptist Young Peoples' union, of America.

To Detroit, July 12 and 13, for National Republican League meeting.

To Cincinnati, July 21 and 22, for German Epworth League meeting.

To Indianapolis, August 17 and 18, for Young People's Christian union annual convention.

To Indianapolis, September 8 and 9, for National Encampment Sons of Veterans.

The reduced rates over the Pennsylvania lines will not be restricted to members of the organizations mentioned, but may be taken advantage of by the public generally. Excursion tickets may be obtained at ticket offices on the Pennsylvania system and will also be sold over this route by connecting railroads. Any Pennsylvania line ticket or passenger agent will furnish desired information concerning rates, time of trains, return limit, and other details, to all applicants, or the same may be obtained by addressing Samuel Moody, assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

New Entrance to New York.

All are convenient locations; Cortlandt street and Desbrosses street, in the downtown district, and Twenty-third street in the uptown district. The latter entrance will be formally opened May 16, when two new, commodious ferryboats, double-deckers, constructed especially for the Pennsylvania lines and furnished and fitted in up-to-date style, will be placed in service between the Jersey City station and Twenty-third street, connecting with all inbound and outbound trains over the Pennsylvania system, the same as the boats running between that station and Cortlandt street and Desbrosses street, which will also continue in the service.

The Pennsylvania lines' three entrances into New York enable passengers to quickly reach the business portion in the lower end of the city, as well as the hotels and business blocks in the very heart of the great metropolis. The ride across the river is a delightful and refreshing termination to an enjoyable trip. All through trains from the west, over the Pennsylvania lines, land passengers in New York between 9:30 a. m., and 9:30 p. m., treating them to a grand view of the city's water front; its extensive docks where at almost any time may be seen ships of many nations. The wonderful panorama gives visitors a slight idea of the magnitude of New York. The new Twenty-third street ferry line is particularly noteworthy in this respect.

Summe Outing.

The principal places of summer sojourn along the Atlantic ocean in the Alleghenies, the Adirondacks, Catskills, and mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan and the northwest, may be readily reached over the Pennsylvania lines.

Special information regarding the leading resorts and the advantages enjoyed in journeying to them over the Pennsylvania route has been compiled and printed in convenient form. The matter is profusely illustrated with photographic reproductions of seashore scenes and includes views at Atlantic City, Cape May, Long Branch and other resorts along the Atlantic coast; also of Cresson, Bedford Springs, and romantic mountain retreats, and of Petoskey, Mackinac, and the summer havens in Michigan and the northwest.

Persons contemplating summer outing trips will find it a valuable guide in shaping preliminaries. Copies may be obtained by addressing D. C. MacWaters, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Excursion to Chillicothe.

June 14, 15 and 16, excursions to tickets will be sold to Chillicothe, O., via Pennsylvania lines for annual encampment, G. A. R., Department of Ohio; return coupons valid June 19, inclusive.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A number of persons went to Pittsburgh this morning.
Prof. O. S. Reed will preach in Chester tomorrow afternoon.
The White Stars yesterday defeated the Neer-do-well team 24 to 8.
Miss Georgia Harker yesterday afternoon entertained the Flabbergasters.
The moulders union of Salem will picnic at Rock Spring next Thursday.
At St. Aloysius church tomorrow the feast of Holy Trinity will be observed.
Henry Knoblock, western traveler of the Dresden, is in the city on business.
Fireman McMillen found a silver ring containing a blue set in Third street, yesterday.
There were no less than 15 boys swimming in the Ohio, near the Virginia shore, last evening.
The members of the Astor club are planning a hay ride to Alum Cliff place, next Tuesday evening.
Spring Grove is at present inhabited by 10 families, and at least 10 more will move to the grounds next week.
No less than five street fakirs came into the city on the noon train. They were of all classes and shapes.
Baggage-master George Smith is attending the school reunion held at Silver Ridge, Franklin township, today.
The train due in this city at 12:10 was 13 minutes late today. A break in the engine at Alliance was the cause.
A force of men have been at work across the river for several days repairing the damage done to the roads by the storm.
Postal cards were this morning sent to the business men, requesting them to close their places of business next Tuesday afternoon.
Mrs. Fannie Wyllie was the recipient of a large box of fine cutflowers from the Pittsburgh ladies of the Winadousus club Friday morning.
Mrs. M. H. Souder this morning was called to Pittsburgh by a telegram announcing the dangerous illness of her sister, Mrs. White.
The early Cleveland train was stopped this morning near Union street by the air tube breaking. It was delayed about five minutes.
No definite action has been taken on the new church that is to be erected in Chester. A meeting of the officials will be held next week.
The work of remodeling the East Market street sewer is progressing rapidly, and it will be completed the early part of next week.
A reunion of the Mapel family is now being arranged. It will be held at the home of Jesse Mapel near Hammondsville in August, and over 75 Mapels will attend.
The small boy with a bunch of torpedoes is making a lot of noise in the city. Instead of exploding them on the ground it is the style to throw them against houses.
A horse attached to a coal wagon owned by George Horner became frightened this morning and ran off. Part of the harness was broken, but no other damage was reported.
Jeweler Wade and wife returned home yesterday from Canton, where they were in attendance at the wedding of W. O. Hamilton. By the way, ask W. O. H. about the missing check.
Freight Agent Thomas, after an extended trip through the northern part of the state, will return home Monday. Dick Greer, who was acting agent in his stead, will return to Wellsville.

The friends of the late Mrs. C. B. Ogden can see her this evening from 7 until 9 o'clock, and tomorrow morning from 9 until 11 o'clock. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.
The library picnic to be held at Rock Spring park, on Tuesday next, promises to be a great affair. The business men and manufacturers of East Liverpool are interesting themselves, and a half holiday is promised. The proceeds are to go to the public library fund. Every good citizen is interested. Make the picnic a flaming success.
D. J. Smith yesterday received a telegram from Hon. R. W. Taylor announcing the appointment of W. C. Smith as postmaster at Bowie, Texas. The gentleman is Mr. Smith's nephew in whom he is deeply interested. Any number of people in the city would be delighted if they heard of similar good fortune.

BOOMING THE PICNIC

Trades Council Met With the Committee.

CASH PRIZES TO BE GIVEN

Arrangements Have Been Made to Have the Outing Next Tuesday a Profitable One For the Public Library--Hard Workers In Charge.

Trades council held a brief session last evening, and decided to permit the committees to wear the official badges next Tuesday. The corresponding secretary was instructed to send out postal cards asking the merchants to close their places of business for the afternoon. The council adjourned and a joint session of the library directors and the committee appointed by Trades council was held. The various sub-committees made very favorable reports, and it was decided to give cash prizes in all the events, as an entrance fee will be charged. The following committee was then selected to transact the business of the day: William Ruhe, Charles Danberg, J. R. Warner, E. W. Hill, J. J. Weisend, John Brannon, C. W. Brownfield, Mayor Gilbert, Chas. Stewart and John Reark. A meeting will be held Monday evening to further arrangements. The picnic will be made a success.

A French View of Us.

I heard much of the American chivalry to women--of how they could walk the streets and travel alone. Let us be frank and say that it is all nonsense! The newspapers make free with the names of ladies, and drag wives and mothers and sisters into the shambles of every political controversy, every social contrepemps. While among the better classes, in their clubs and drawing rooms, one hears hints, scandals, innuendoes, and stories--and most of them about the ladies in their own circle--such as would prepare the way for a dozen duels a week in my own country. When one hears speeches--it matters little by whom, for they pretty much all speak well--one is a little jealous of a race which seems to be endowed by the gods with a gift so rare, but when one reads them one is rather sad than jealous. Nine-tenths of them are as sounding brass. They are for the ears--for long ears--not for the mind. A French politician who should treat his constituents to the quality of oratory that evidently suffices here would be ridiculed by every journal in France, and in England such a one would be quietly shelved at the instance of his own party leaders. --"America and Americans From a French Point of View."

A Scotch Child.

I have a small cousin, aged 8, who has already contracted the very bad habit of smoking whenever he gets a chance.

The other evening, after he had been put to bed, his father went up stairs to the room where he was and began to search the youngster's pockets.

The boy lay watching him for a few minutes, then suddenly sat up and exclaimed:

"Oh, faither, I clean forgot! I bocht a pennyworth of cigarettes the day for a present tae ye."

A King and His Crown.

The sovereign who makes use of his crown most frequently is that most simple, unaffected and democratic of all monarchs of Europe, King Oscar of Sweden, who dons it each time that he opens parliament at Stockholm or at Christiania.

It scarcely adds to his appearance, for it comes down too far over his nose, and somewhat gives one the impression of a derby hat worn on the back of the head and pulled down over the ears. Indeed it is only the king's majestic stature and dignified bearing that preserve him from looking ridiculous when he has got it upon his head. --London Letter.

Torn by Horses.

During the middle ages great criminals, such as parricides and persons who conspired against the king, were torn to pieces by horses, one or two powerful steeds being fastened to each limb and driven in different directions. Ravaillac, the assassin of Henry IV, and Damiens, who conspired against Louis XV, were put to death in this manner.

An Experiment.

"Where are you going, Michael, so early?"
"Apothecary's. Wife got sick last night."
"Doctor been there yet?"
"No. I just found a prescription in the street when I was in town, and I'm going to have that made up and try it."
--Fliegende Blatter.

Pliny says that the almond blossom was regarded by the young people of his age as an emblem of hope.

HARPOONING TARPON.

A Royal Sport That Appeals to Both Hunters and Fishers.

"For this," he says, "one uses a barbed iron called 'grains' or a short, light harpoon known as a 'lily iron,' either of which is temporarily attached to a light pine pole, the striking pole, and is cast as a spear might be."

"The grains is a double pronged wrought iron instrument, the prongs usually not more than 3 or 4 inches in length, and from three-sixteenths to three-eighths of an inch thick. Strong barbs are sprung an inch from the delicately sharp, hardened points, having a spread of three-eighths of an inch and about 1 1/2 inches space between the two. The prongs are cut so that the points, while extending inward, are raised from opposing sides. This gives the greatest holding power. The grains has also a tapered socket for the striking pole. The lily iron is a far heavier instrument, and, unlike the grains, is capable of killing at a blow. The upper sides of the barbs are left broad and flat, enabling them to withstand a strain of several hundred pounds. A heavier and sharper weapon is used to strike sword-fish or porpoises, as the former are dangerous creatures, unless hit mortally. Then there are necessary 300 or 400 feet of soft 'striking line,' three-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, and one of the ordinary fishing boats of the Florida coast and a guide.

"On approaching the tarpon run the sails and mast are stowed, and the guide uses a pole in the shallow water and sculls in the channel. A fish being seen, the striker indicates its direction, and, standing in the bow with widely spread legs, leaning well back, with poised spear, the man waits till he is within 20 feet, unless he is unusually powerful, then hurls the weapon, which shoots with a hiss into the water.

"The fish is anywhere from two to three feet beneath the surface of the water, changing its position constantly, and, because of the refraction, seemingly anywhere but where it really is. A successful throw buries the points in the flesh, and the pole comes loose and floats to the surface, to be picked up when the tarpon makes its first rush. It is best to let the tarpon go without trying to stop it on the first rush, as the barbs may fall out. When the rush is over, the boat is run toward the fish. Then out of the water it goes, not with the grace and head shaking of a hooked tarpon, but with a rush and surge. Then it tows the boat, if the fish is a 100 or 150 pounder, at a rapid rate. Sometimes the fish sulks and leaps, darting at the boat to scrape the grains out of its flesh. It takes about half as long to kill a tarpon with a spear as with a hook, but it is a fiercer fight while it lasts."

THE FIRST DIRECTORY.

Some Quaint Olden Time New York Business and Social Addresses.

In the first directory of New York city, which was issued in 1786, there are some peculiar and quaint entries. For instance, in those days it was not uncommon for medical practitioners to sell drugs, as is shown by the following address, "Samuel Brodhurst, physician and apothecary, 64 Queen (now Pearl) street."

Clergymen of that period were exceedingly precise regarding their titles. Thus, "Abraham Bache, reverend of the Church of England, 29 Smith street," and "Joze Phelan, clergyman of the Church of Rome, 1 Beekman street."

Leon Rogers, tailor, of 55 Broadway, was described as a "breeches maker;" John Bean, 60 Broadway, as "surgeon and tooth puller;" S. Crygier, 69 Cherry street, "punch and porter house;" Jo Deleplane of 132 Queen street, "Quaker speaker;" D. Hitchcock, 89 Queen street, "house carpenter and undertaker;" John Hogland, 95 Queen street, "fiddler, etc.;" Henry H. Kip, 25 King street, "inspector of pot and pearl ashes;" John Nitchie, 7 Garden street, "starch and hair powder maker;" Samuel B. Webb, 29 Lower Dock street, "gentleman."

In those days, too, there were a great many "gentlewomen" and a few "wash-women." All teachers were then addressed either as "schoolmasters" or "schoolmistresses." Make the picnic a flaming success.

D. J. Smith yesterday received a telegram from Hon. R. W. Taylor announcing the appointment of W. C. Smith as postmaster at Bowie, Texas. The gentleman is Mr. Smith's nephew in whom he is deeply interested. Any number of people in the city would be delighted if they heard of similar good fortune.

BOOMING THE PICNIC

Trades Council Met With the Committee.

Arrangements Have Been Made to Have the Outing Next Tuesday a Profitable One For the Public Library--Hard Workers In Charge.

Trades council held a brief session last evening, and decided to permit the committees to wear the official badges next Tuesday. The corresponding secretary was instructed to send out postal cards asking the merchants to close their places of business for the afternoon. The council adjourned and a joint session of the library directors and the committee appointed by Trades council was held. The various sub-committees made very favorable reports, and it was decided to give cash prizes in all the events, as an entrance fee will be charged. The following committee was then selected to transact the business of the day: William Ruhe, Charles Danberg, J. R. Warner, E. W. Hill, J. J. Weisend, John Brannon, C. W. Brownfield, Mayor Gilbert, Chal Stewart and John Reark. A meeting will be held Monday evening to further arrangements. The picnic will be made a success.

A French View of Us.

I heard much of the American chivalry to women—of how they could walk the streets and travel alone. Let us be frank and say that it is all nonsense! The newspapers make free with the names of ladies, and drag wives and mothers and sisters into the shambles of every political controversy, every social contretemps. While among the better classes, in their clubs and drawing rooms, one hears hints, scandals, innuendoes, and stories—and most of them about the ladies in their own circle—such as would prepare the way for a dozen duels a week in my own country.

When one hears speeches—it matters little by whom, for they pretty much all speak well—one is a little jealous of a race which seems to be endowed by the gods with a gift so rare, but when one reads them one is rather sad than jealous. Nine-tenths of them are as sounding brass. They are for the ears—for long ears—not for the mind. A French politician who should treat his constituents to the quality of oratory that evidently suffices here would be ridiculed by every journal in France, and in England such a one would be quietly shelved at the instance of his own party leaders. —"America and Americans From a French Point of View."

A Scotch Child.

I have a small cousin, aged 8, who has already contracted the very bad habit of smoking whenever he gets a chance.

The other evening, after he had been put to bed, his father went up stairs to the room where he was and began to search the youngster's pockets.

The boy lay watching him for a few minutes, then suddenly set up and exclaimed:

"Oh, father, I clean forgot! I bocht a pennyworth of cigarettes the day for a present tae ye."

A King and His Crown.

The sovereign who makes use of his crown most frequently is that most simple, unaffected and democratic of all monarchs of Europe, King Oscar of Sweden, who dons it each time that he opens parliament at Stockholm or at Christiania.

It scarcely adds to his appearance, for it comes down too far over his nose, and somewhat gives one the impression of a derby hat worn on the back of the head and pulled down over the ears. Indeed it is only the king's majestic stature and dignified bearing that preserve him from looking ridiculous when he has got it upon his head. —London Letter.

Torn by Horses.

During the middle ages great criminals, such as parricides and persons who conspired against the king, were torn to pieces by horses, one or two powerful steeds being fastened to each limb and driven in different directions. Ravallac, the assassin of Henry IV, and Damians, who conspired against Louis XV, were put to death in this manner.

An Experiment.

"Where are you going, Michael, so early?"

"Apothecary's. Wife got sick last night."

"Doctor been there yet?"

"No. I just found a prescription in the street when I was in town, and I'm going to have that made up and try it."

—Fliegende Blatter.

Pliny says that the almond blossom was regarded by the young people of his age as an emblem of hope.

HARPOONING TARPON.

A Royal Sport That Appeals to Both Hunters and Fishers.

A writer for Outing tells about the sport of striking tarpon.

"For this," he says, "one uses a barbed iron called 'grains' or a short, light harpoon known as a 'lily iron,' either of which is temporarily attached to a light pine pole, the striking pole, and is cast as a spear might be.

"The grains is a double pronged wrought iron instrument, the prongs usually not more than 3 or 4 inches in length, and from three-sixteenths to three-eighths of an inch thick. Strong bars are sprung an inch from the delicately sharp, hardened points, having a spread of three-eighths of an inch and about 1½ inches space between the two. The prongs are cut so that the points, while extending inward, are raised from opposing sides. This gives the greatest holding power. The grains has also a tapered socket for the striking pole. The lily iron is a far heavier instrument, and, unlike the grains, is capable of killing at a blow. The upper sides of the bars are left broad and flat, enabling them to withstand a strain of several hundred pounds. A heavier and sharper weapon is used to strike sword-fish or porpoises, as the former are dangerous creatures, unless hit mortally. Then there are necessary 300 or 400 feet of soft 'striking line,' three-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, and one of the ordinary fishing boats of the Florida coast and a guide.

"On approaching the tarpon run the sails and mast are stowed, and the guide uses a pole in the shallow water and sculls in the channel. A fish being seen, the striker indicates its direction, and, standing in the bow with widely spread legs, leaning well back, with poised spear, the man waits till he is within 20 feet, unless he is unusually powerful, then hurls the weapon, which shoots with a hiss into the water.

"The fish is anywhere from two to three feet beneath the surface of the water, changing its position constantly, and, because of the refraction, seemingly anywhere but where it really is. A successful throw buries the points in the flesh, and the pole comes loose and floats to the surface, to be picked up when the tarpon makes its first rush. It is best to let the tarpon go without trying to stop it on the first rush, as the bars may fall out. When the rush is over, the boat is run toward the fish. Then out of the water it goes, not with the grace and head shaking of a hooked tarpon, but with a rush and surge. Then it tows the boat, if the fish is a 100 or 150 pounder, at a rapid rate. Sometimes the fish sulks and leaps, darting at the boat to scrape the grains out of its flesh. It takes about half as long to kill a tarpon with a spear as with a hook, but it is a fiercer fight while it lasts."

THE FIRST DIRECTORY.

Some Quaint Olden Time New York Business and Social Addresses.

In the first directory of New York city, which was issued in 1786, there are some peculiar and quaint entries. For instance, in those days it was not uncommon for medical practitioners to sell drugs, as is shown by the following address, "Samuel Bredhurst, physician and apothecary, 64 Queen (now Pearl) street."

Clergymen of that period were exceedingly precise regarding their titles. Thus, "Abraham Bache, reverend of the Church of England, 29 Smith street," and "Joze Phelan, clergyman of the Church of Rome, 1 Beekman street."

Leon Rogers, tailor, of 55 Broadway, was described as a "breeches maker;" John Bean, 60 Broadway, as "surgeon and tooth puller;" S. Crygier, 69 Cherry street, "punch and porter house;" Jo Deleplane of 132 Queen street, "Quaker speaker;" D. Hitchcock, 89 Queen street, "house carpenter and undertaker;" John Hogland, 95 Queen street, "fiddler, etc.;" Henry H. Kip, 25 King street, "inspector of pot and pearl ashes;" John Nitchie, 7 Garden street, "starch and hair powder maker;" Samuel B. Webb, 29 Lower Dock street, "gentleman."

In those days, too, there were a great many "gentlewomen" and a few "wash-women." All teachers were then addressed either as "schoolmasters" or "schoolmistresses." The retail dealers on Broadway and Wall and Queen streets called themselves "shopkeepers," the hotel men were "tavern keepers," and the policemen were "watchmen." —New York Post.
